ECONOMICS & REVOLUTION – PART XV

Last time we covered the history of the Secret Societies and how they manifested themselves up until the modern era. In the process we saw how they all descended from the Ancient Mystery Religions that originated in Babylon and from there spread across the Middle East and eventually the entire world. The original Bavarian Illuminati movement – closely associated with Masonry - was suppressed by the authorities about a decade after its founding in 1776. But just as the priestly torch of the rites of the Mystery Religions was passed from one Secret Society to the next, just so the flame of Illumination survived in various forms of Masonry. And over the ensuing two-and-one-half centuries, Masonic and Illuminist influence has been at the center of revolutionary movements to change the world according to their own plan. And their plans have carried down to today.

THE MODERN INFLUENCE OF THE SECRET SOCIETIES

To encapsulate what we covered last time: The Ancient Mystery Religions begot the Kabbalists – who begot the Gnostics – who begot the Knights Templar – who gave birth to the Rosicrucians – with the Freemasons / Illuminati next in line and still existent and powerful today. Now as we've seen - or will in the near future see – various groups and movements came into being at the influence of the Masonic movement. These include Marxism, the cabal of international bankers, the World Council of Churches and other offshoots of the ecumenical movement (with the help of the Rockefellers), the Theosophists, the Jehovah's Witnesses, the Mormons and on and on. These varied belief systems have all contributed to today's New Age Movement with its panoply of 'spiritual technology' and transcendentalism. With a pedigree firmly established in 19th century spiritualism, it progressed through all its forms including the musings and hard-core Theosophy of Madame Blavatsky and Alice Bailey – who wrote books under the influence of demons. It even took allies from the earth worshiping Green – Mother Goddess environmental phenomenon of today.¹

But let's jump back from here a bit to those decades that followed the Revolution in France. Though suppressed and broken up by the Bavarian government, the decades that followed saw significant progress in the Illuminati plan to set up their dreamed-of New World Order. We've already covered Masonic involvement in fomenting the French Revolution, the troubles across Europe in 1830, - and those in 1848, and in the wars that led to the unification of Italy in mid-century and on and on. It was Karl Marx who adopted the same Satanic ideology in publishing his Communist Manifesto. Marx was a member of a Satanic cult in his youth, specifically the League of the Just, an offshoot of the Illuminati. He was joined by Engels, his partner and fellow worshiper of Lucifer in promoting the ideas in that fateful document, - most of which had been borrowed from Adam Weishaupt himself. Through his association with the Italian Masonic Illuminist Giuseppe Mazzini – Marx was used “to penetrate and subvert the growing Socialist Labour movement.”^{2 3} The Russian revolutionary Mikhail Bakunin wrote of the direct relationship between the socialist movement and Satanism. “The Evil One is the satanic revolt against divine authority, revolt in which we see the fecund germ of all human emancipations, the revolution. Satan is the eternal rebel, the first freethinker...he emancipates [man] stamps upon his brow the seal of liberty and humanity, in urging him to disobey”. Bakunin admitted that the mission of the revolutionary “is to destroy, not to edify”. Thus is this close dance between revolution and the occult. No less a historian and statesman than Winston Churchill recognized the conspiratorial nature of the revolutionary age, concluding correctly that their purpose was the very overthrow of civilization.⁴ Masonic scholar Fr Donald Sanborn describes this motivating ethic born of Freemasonry as a “cult of liberty...not legitimate...the freedom of the devil...They desire not the liberty of the sons of God, but the 'liberty' which makes us slaves to sin”.⁵ As if to punctuate the connection, Satanic ceremonies are to this day practiced at Marx's tomb.⁶

In a famous quote, Winston Churchill was addressing “Zionism versus Bolshevism” in an article for the Illustrated Sunday Herald in 1920. The Communists had just taken control of Russia through bloody revolution. He wrote: “This movement among the Jews is not new. From the days of Spartacus-Weishaupt to those of Karl Marx, and down to Trotsky (Russia), Bela Kun (Hungary), Rosa Luxembourg (Germany), and Emma Goldman (United States)... this worldwide conspiracy for the overthrow of civilisation and for the reconstitution of society on the basis of arrested development, of envious malevolence, and impossible equality, has been steadily growing. It has been the mainspring of every subversive movement during the 19th century; and now at last this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworld of the great cities of Europe and America have gripped the Russian people by the hair of their heads and have become practically the undisputed masters of that enormous empire.”⁷

But while recognizing the nature of the beast, - the interconnectedness between Weishaupt, Marx and Trotsky, - Churchill saw its origins and impetus in “a movement of the Jews”.⁸ Now Weishaupt was a Catholic professor of theology, it is true, - but beginning in the late 18th century the Illuminati came under the controlling influence of a family steeped in Cabalistic Jewish traditions called the Rothschilds.⁹ According to John Todd, an Illuminati defector and former Witch High Priest, the Rothschilds head ‘a vast, highly-organized and powerful occult conspiracy’. They “lead the Illuminati and in every country they have a family”. Todd describes what’s happening now as “thousands of different conspiracies operating in parallel”.¹⁰ One of them happened to manifest itself as the 60’s Revolution.

A New Age Aside

As Sanborn would have it, this “cult of liberty” seems the driving ethic of that landmark decade and the explosion in Eastern, New Age and occult beliefs that accompanied it. There was clear Marxist influence in the political philosophy that grabbed much of that generation. While on the spiritual front, it is important to realize that the Masonic / Illuminati alliance has purposefully fed into the New Age movement. The modern manifestation of the New Age was born of the chaos of the 60’s. The revolutionary spirit of those days was both political and spiritual. By 1965, the counterculture was challenging and in many cases breaking down what was referred to as the Establishment. Under the influence of the Beatles and other popular rock groups, Eastern religions and even outright occultism began to take hold among the nation’s youth. It tainted much of a generation, bringing with it a breakdown of the moral order through a sexual revolution – whose effects are felt to this day. As a boy of nine, I witnessed – [with cultural interest] – the introduction of topless fashions – and mini and micro-skirts. The loosening moral standards had their effect. The make up of the family was forever changed. Over the ensuing decades we have seen the results in fatherlessness, which brought increasing poverty, and delinquency and more out of wedlock births and a rise in drug addiction and crime and welfare dependence...and the cycle continues to this day. Race riots erupted in the streets and Peace riots plagued the college campuses. And almost unnoticed, the fruit of the occult forces being released took their toll. No matter what you thought of the music or the politics, Woodstock was – in the words of Dr Gary North – “the high water mark of the counterculture. It was peace and love everywhere, and drugs and fornication.” This hedonistic celebration followed almost immediately on the heels of the decidedly occult Manson murders. Charles Manson employed a variety of mystic-satanic mind altering techniques including drugs, mysticism, Eastern religions and sexual perversion. And strangely, the day after the details hit the news stands – on December 6th, - a Hell’s Angel security guard killed a man at a music festival at Altamont, CA - as the Rolling Stones played Sympathy for the Devil. Lead singer later remarked: “We always have something very funny happen when we start that number.” Gary North quotes the Stones biographer on the incident. “There, at last, was the crucial moment at Altamont in the redspotlit dark, as Mick Jagger stood, helpless among the real demons his masquerade had summoned up.”¹¹ A rebellious generation had summoned up Forces it could neither understand nor control. For the most part, these were the dupes while the puppeteers pulled the strings. That influence is still felt today.

Instruments Of Control

But while spiritual and political influence are important, they need to be exercised through power, ultimately expressed through yet another tool – money. To that end, the Illuminati / Masonic alliance with the Rothschilds and other family-owned and controlled international banking houses was essential. Let’s look at the House of Rothschild. They’re an interesting bunch. Founded in the 18th century by Mayer Amschel Rothschild, his sons went on to establish merchant banks in England, France, Austria, Prussia and Italy.¹² It was the Rothschilds that bankrolled John D Rockefeller’s founding of Standard Oil, - as well as backing other American entrepreneurs such as Andrew Carnegie and Edward Harriman.¹³ Of course there is nothing wrong with bankers financing businessmen. In this case however it established the beginning of a relationship that continues through history. So let’s consider the power of just these two families. The Rothschilds and their associates wield control of the “central banking” houses, which provide the working cash for national governments, - including the US. The Federal Reserve is a creation of these controlling banking families. Both JP Morgan Co. & Kunn, Loeb & Co., - American representatives of the Rothschild interests, were in on the founding of the Fed, - and purchased controlling interest in it when it came into being in 1914. Now officially, the 12 regional Federal Reserve Banks run the Fed itself, - but these regional banks are dominated by the very same banking families, - and no outsider may buy in. So private families not only own, - but can to a large degree control the size of the Federal debt that is owed them. Now that’s power! For their part, the Rockefellers hold Exxon and the Chase Manhattan Bank.¹⁴
¹⁵ Not too shabby either.

Now what tied so many of these banker types together was an organization mentioned before called Skull and Bones. Just like the Illuminati of which it was a ‘parallel conspiracy’, Skull had its roots overseas in the Bavarian Illuminati. That Order managed to plant its influence throughout the world of finance. Rockefellers, Whitneys, Harrimans and Vanderbilts were all members as were Prescott Bush and both Presidents Bush. Some members had cross memberships in another occult society, the Knights Templar. Then there were connections to High Masonry and the ruling families of England. And of course a spider web of networks that led to the owning families of the Federal Reserve; the Rothschilds, Schiffs, Warburgs, Rockefellers and Gugenheims.¹⁶

The power elites taken together have been exercising control in four distinct spheres; - the economy, the media, the universities and government. Both the Federal Reserve and the Bank of England are under the control of the ruling banking families. [The International Monetary Fund & the World Bank are also under their influence.] Both 'Big Media' and our educational / university system are dominated by One World types. In politics, influence is exercised by the CFR, the Council on Foreign Relations. The CFR outlook crosses party & philosophic lines. You will find internationalism preached by Democrat & Republican; - liberal & conservative. Examples: Nixon crony Henry Kissinger and Carter man Zbigniew Brzezinski.¹⁷ In his book Between Two Ages, Brzezinski touted "global human consciousness...the emergence of trans-national elites [whose loyalties] cut across national boundaries... [and] are not confined by national traditions".¹⁸ It is those international loyalties that drive the members of the Powers-That-Be. They are committed to the Church of Man – secular humanism. At the highest levels it is but a thin veneer for the darkest depths of Satanism. They would have Man on the throne – the New Age Christ – and a New Order to go with him. They would fulfill the dream of Nimrod and those that were attempting to build the Tower of Babel, when in their selfishness and pride they said, "let us make a name for ourselves." (Genesis 11:4) As then, so now; is the foolish rebellion of Man against God! The psalmist explains: "Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the LORD shall have them in derision." (Psalm 2:1-4) (KJV)

FLASH POINT: ISRAEL

OK, where to start? Isaac & Ishmael? Naw, move it up a bit...to, say, early August 2010. So here's what we've got. The border between Lebanon Israel is called the 'Blue Line' – and there's this border fence, that does not necessarily coincide with it – but kind of leans a little toward Lebanon – in that there's some Israeli territory on the Lebanese side of the fence. So members of the Israeli Defense Force, go out to fix the border fence – after informing the UN Force there (UNIFIL). And without warning, Lebanese Regular Army forces mind you, - (not Hezbollah terrorists), - open fire on the soldiers performing routine maintenance, killing a high ranking Israeli officer in the process. This attack by the Lebanese regulars was not some rogue act perpetrated by an officer with terrorist sympathies. Yes, the fact is that Lebanon's Armed Forces have been infiltrated by Hezbollah. But an official spokesman for the Lebanese Army let it be known that the attack was an officially approved act. It was policy.¹⁹ What's interesting too is the fact that apparently reporters and photographers were on hand to report on the incident, having evidently been informed ahead of time that something big might occur.²⁰ In the aftermath of the attack as well as rocket launchings by from Gaza, Prime Minister Netanyahu issued general warnings to both Lebanon and Hamas and his government gave an ultimatum to the Lebanese to fire the commander responsible for the attacks on the IDF troops – or face the consequences. DEBKA reports that those would include the destruction of the Lebanese military positions along the border.²¹ In the wake of the attacks, Hezbollah threatened to join the Lebanese military should further action ensue.²² The situation is further complicated by the fact that as the Lebanese Army takes on the goals of Hezbollah as its own, it is thereby becoming a de-facto ally of Iran. Then add this. The internal situation in Lebanon is deteriorating fast. Hezbollah operatives may soon be indicted in the 2005 assassination of former PM Hariri. That could send the pro-US, Sunni elements in the government into instant opposition of the radicalized Lebanese regime. Some analysts fear a new Lebanese civil war could break out within weeks. Hezbollah chief Hassan Nasrallah is pressuring the Lebanese government to end the investigation looking into the Hariri assassination.²³ Finally toss in the fact that Syria has recently sent SCUD missiles to Hezbollah. It all makes for a very interesting situation.²⁴ And as we went to press, DEBKA was reporting that the armies of Israel, Syria, Lebanon and Hezbollah have gone on alert.²⁵ Cognizant of the dangerous forces an attack would unleash, Admiral Mike Mullen – head of all the US military – admitted that the US does have a working "plan to attack Iran and its nuclear facilities." With all that in mind, an increasing number of analysts and experts are coming to believe that another Middle East war is inevitable. This time, they believe it will be significant, likely changing the very face of the region. It is all "just a matter of time."²⁶

FLASH POINT: IRAN

Yeah, this one's related to the Israeli flash point. According to Iran's Fars News Agency, Tehran has done an end run around Russia's refusal to deliver the promised top-of-the-line S-300 anti-aircraft missile system. They've obtained a small amount of them from other sources; - one of those being Belarus.²⁷ If this is indeed true that would put further pressure on Israel to either decide to strike the Iranian nuclear plans soon – before a fully-updated air defense can be deployed – or accept a nuclear capable Iran, with all its anti-Semitic overtones. This coincides nicely with an open letter by group of anti-Israeli former American intelligence operatives who are warning President Obama that Israel could hit Iran as soon as "within a month." They insist that President Obama must take steps to back Israel down. In their scenario, an attack on the Iranian nuclear facilities would necessarily lead to wider war and the eventual destruction of the Jewish state anyway.²⁸ Pushing the issue is the fact that Iranian

Parliamentary Speaker Ali Larijani recently admitted that Iran has access to both nuclear and missile technology.²⁹ Here are the internal complications on this front. President Ahmadinejad survived an assassination attempt, when a powerful explosive went off as his convoy traveled through a city in northern Iran. At almost the same time, a massive explosion occurred at an Iranian petro-chemical plant, killing five workers.^{30 31}

FLASH POINT: NORTH KOREA

Background: North Korea sinks a South Korean warship. The US & South Korea complain. And that makes the North real mad. The US and the South hold some maneuvers which makes the Commies even madder and they threaten war...as usual. Then the North responds by deploying anti-aircraft missiles ratcheting up tensions yet again.³² They follow that by seizing the ship and crew of a South Korean fishing vessel and firing over a hundred rounds of live artillery rounds into the sea.³³ Keep in mind the Illuminati revealed 30 years ago – in a book called The Armageddon Script – that a nuclear crisis on the Korean Peninsula was an integral part of the plan to bring about a New World Order through the rise to power of a New Age Christ.

FLASH POINT: CHINA

Another cog in the Illuminati plan re-order the globe is China. According to Peter Lemesurier's The Armageddon Script again, China will move against Taiwan when the US is occupied with numerous wars – in the Middle East & Korea, for instance. So here's a bit of interesting news on that front. The balance of military power may be shifting in favor of the Chinese. They've developed a new generation of anti-carrier missile that can hit targets with pinpoint accuracy that are 900 miles away. Carrier task forces are the most important element the US uses to project power around the globe. Once fully deployed, the Chinese could strike and neutralize American power before it came within the range of its own ability to strike at Chinese assets. And that means it could not honor its commitment to defend Taiwan against Communist aggression. Final tests on the missile system could come by the end of the year.³⁴

A MOMENTOUS DECISION

We all know by now that Judge Vaughn Walker declared in Federal Court that California's Proposition 8, defining marriage as between a man and a woman, was declared unconstitutional. And yeah, nothing is settled yet, as it will be appealed all the way to the Supreme Court. But the fact of the matter is if the ruling stands it will effectively make Gay Marriage legal in all 50 states. The judge, who is gay himself, dissed all the arguments made against upholding the will of a majority of Californians. His ruling also effectively set aside the thousands of years of civilized wisdom as he sought to advance his radical cause. This is all about normalizing homosexuality in society. In his decision and the accompanying findings he wrote this nugget of irrationality. "Gender no longer forms an essential part of marriage." Perhaps this remark explains the former. It is "an artifact of a foregone notion that men and women fulfill different roles." He dismissed the notion that children are better off in a traditional family setting. "Children do not need to be raised by a male parent and a female parent to be well adjusted and having both a male parent and a female parent does not increase the likelihood that a child will be well adjusted." In essence, Justice Walker's ruling challenges the foundational wisdom of Western culture by redefining marriage. Eventually, the Supreme Court will have to decide if this radical transformation will stand.^{35 36} That will be a momentous decision.
