MARCHING TOWARD THE INEVITABLE

What was once unthinkable is now almost accepted...in some quarters, at least. Iran may go nuclear...as in weaponry. IRAN WILL SOON GET THE BOMB! Unless someone acts to stop them! And the United States, who once guaranteed that they would never let that happen, is ready to look the other way and accept this new reality. That, despite the fact that Iran has promised to use their power to wipe Israel off the map and rid the Middle East of the hated Jews. You see, relationships in the Middle East are changing. There are actually two crisis in the making involving Israel; - and they both threaten its very existence. America is a key player in both scenarios. Along with the EU, Russia and the UN – (the rest of the Quartet) – the US is pushing a new round of face to face negotiations between Israel and Abbas' Palestinian Authority to achieve a final settlement and set the groundwork to establish a Palestinian State. They are demanding that that work be completed in a year's time.<sup>1</sup> They expect that the basis will be a return to the 1949 armistice line, thereby returning at least East Jerusalem to the Arabs. (You can't say Palestinians – because there was no Palestinian cause – or self-identified Palestinian people until nearly 2 decades later. That's when – with Israel having taken Jerusalem and the Biblical lands of Judea and Samaria, [the West Bank], the Palestinians magically appeared on the scene.) The Quartet is also demanding a building freeze continue until the negotiations are completed. (At that point of course, it would be a moot point.) But the Israeli government under Netanyahu is all set to reject those demands.<sup>2</sup> And rightfully so! Now Targeting the Israelis only, the Obama administration is warning Jerusalem about doing anything to damage the peace process.<sup>3</sup> And Hamas is so concerned that the talks may be successful that they've threatened terror attacks against Israel, the Palestinian Authority, and even warned Egypt not to support the process.<sup>4</sup> Then just as this newsletter was going to press, news came out that they were claiming credit for the shooting attack of 4 Israelis near Hebron. [In the wake of the attack, Israel rounded up and arrested 150 Hamas members.]<sup>5</sup>

If that's not enough, even the Religious Affairs Minister of Israel's negotiating partner, the Palestinian Authority is threatening war if Jerusalem doesn't become "the capital of the Palestinian people."<sup>6</sup> And word came out of Damascus that Syria is aligning with both Hezbollah and Lebanese government forces in a very practical military way. They've even set up joint headquarters to coordinate operations.<sup>7 8</sup> Other Mid-East news reports are fulfilling Jesus' "rumors of wars" prophecy of Matthew 24:6. They have Israel preparing to destroy Hezbollah arms caches inside of Lebanon and readying a plan "to destroy within four hours the entire Lebanese military infrastructure."<sup>9 10</sup> Events in the region are starting to look like the grand set up for the fulfillment of the Psalm's 83 War which this writer and a number of scholars believe is the next big event on the prophetic calendar. [Excluding the Rapture of course, as that timing is unknown.] Psalm 83 lays out the scenario for a war by the inner ring of Israel's Arab neighbors including Syria, and the Palestinians, (see Obadiah), and likely includes the destruction of Damascus, (found in Isaiah 17:1). Psalm 83:3-8 gives both the nature of the plot and names the peoples who Israel will face in that round of the struggle. "They have taken crafty counsel against Your people, And consulted together against Your sheltered ones. They have said, 'Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation, That the name of Israel may be remembered no more.' For they have consulted together with one consent; They form a confederacy against You: Moab and the Hagrites; Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek; Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre; Assyria also has joined with them; They have helped the children of Lot.” Those are the ancient names for the people groups that make up the exact forces that Israel is facing today.

Yet despite the danger to the very existence of the Jewish state, the Obama administration is scrambling around, reportedly offering deals to head off an Israeli attack. But an attack by Israel against the Iranian nuke sites is very much back on the table. In Debka’s words, “Israel has revived its military option.” So the administration has put together a package that offers stronger action by the IAEA and an array of “security gifts”. Included are a US “nuclear umbrella” –[a promise of US nuclear retaliation if anyone should hit Israel with ‘the bomb’], - F22 Raptor stealth jets, missile and attack submarines and supposedly even membership in NATO. To gain all of this stuff – Israel would just have to accept an Iran with a nuclear arsenal. Now what good would all of that do if that tiny country was hit with a couple of nukes? Remember, these are the folks that want to end the Jewish state and create the chaos that will bring about the ascension of the Mahdi. It’s a fool’s deal. And Washington wants Jerusalem to play the fool and accept terms under which – even if they win – they cannot help but lose to the possible tune of millions of its citizens, incinerated in a nuclear holocaust.<sup>11 12</sup> [Or are they just driving them to take that fateful action against Iran – protecting their own security and possibly starting a worldwide conflagration in the process?]

While tensions rise over the Iranian nuclear program preparations are taking place in both Iran and Syria with Damascus putting its military on a war footing. One source has PA Chief Mahmoud Abbas warning of a “big military surprise in the Middle East.” Referring to the Iranian activation of their nuclear reactor at Bushehr, former American Secretary of State Lawrence Eagleburger predicts: “The world’s going to war over this. If Iran gets the weapon, it’s going to use it.” American, British and French forces have already carried out exercises simulating attacks on Iran’s nuclear facilities.<sup>13</sup> It is a dangerous time indeed! Now according to Ezekiel 38, Iran (Persia) will one of the major players in an invasion yet future. Ezekiel names an outer ring of nations who will cooperate in this second strike at a time when the Jews will be living in “a land of unwalled villages” and who “ dwell safely”. (Ezek 38:11) That’s certainly not the situation today. So we are warned prophetically to expect this second invasion / war, sometime after the dust has settled on the first war – that of Psalm 83.

But today’s real news may center around the peace negotiations being pushed by the Obama administration. The President – along with the rest of the Quartet - and most of the world for that matter – envisions a return to the pre-1967 borders – creating a Palestinian state where there was none – and giving away God’s promised land. The program is to get the Israelis and the Palestinians to guarantee an agreement on paper within the year. After that the agreement would go into effect in steps over the course of several years.<sup>14</sup> Mmmm, that sounds strangely reminiscent of several prophecies. The Scriptures tell us that this promise of the creation of a Palestinian state will be never quite live up to the reality. Here’s Isaiah 34:12. “They shall call its nobles to the kingdom, But none shall be there, and all its princes shall be nothing.” But most interesting perhaps is the notion of the gradual implementation of some future Middle East peace deal. That seems to be just what the Prophet Daniel might be talking about. He references a seven year covenant that will be treacherously broken in the middle, exactly three-and-one-half years in.. “Then he shall confirm a covenant with many for one week; But in the middle of the week He shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering.” (Daniel 9:27) [The word translated “week” is shabuim, and refers to a 7 year period or ‘week of years’.] The current dispute centers on the status of Jerusalem. We’ve written before of the Illuminati plans to turn the Holy City over to international control, - possibly under the auspices of the Vatican. And the Roman Church has long been interested in such an arrangement. While we cannot quite comprehend the final shape of the thing, it is interesting to watch these prophetic developments unfold before our very eyes.

“So you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near – at the door! Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away.” (Matthew 24:33-35)

ECONOMICS & REVOLUTION – PART XVIII

Looking at the ‘formative years’ way back in the last (20th) century – we can definitely see that ‘something’ was going on. Wherever you turned, the elite were working hand in hand with revolutionary forces, making trouble for the Capitalist West. And the Capitalists were providing their biggest financial support. Now we already know their goal. They told us in their own words: One World Government. The only question was: How were they going to get there.

WHAT CONSPIRACY ?

“The ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but who for one hour will receive authority as kings along with the beast. They have one purpose and will give their power and authority to the beast.” (Revelation 17:12-13)

Zbigniew Brzezinski is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), a co-founder of the Trilateral Commission and a National Security Advisor to five American presidents, - and the chief foreign policy advisor to President Carter as well as to Barack Obama. Here’s what he had to say at Mikhail Gorbachev’s State of the World Forum in 1995. “We cannot leap into world government through one quick step...The precondition for genuine globalization is progressive regionalization”.<sup>15</sup> He went on to describe his goal as “a more controlled society. Such a society would be dominated by an elite, unrestrained by traditional values”.<sup>16</sup> Did you catch the import of what he was saying? The goal, - that he and others among the world’s movers and shakers have, - is WORLD GOVERNMENT, and the means to get there is the organization of nation states into regions; a la the EU.

The CFR, the Bildebergers, the Trilateralists, among others all seek a One World Government. Brzezinski was the man who drafted the charter of the Trilateral Commission. That illuminist organization’s main goals include; - a new global monetary system, redistribution of wealth, and greater international controls. That sounds like the socialist world revolution. There is no doubt from whence they come. Mr Brzezinski himself declared that “Marxism represents a further vital and creative stage in the maturing of man’s universal vision”. He called Stalinism with its Gulag and its tens of millions of victims “a blessing in disguise”.<sup>17</sup> And these are the organizations that move the pieces. Prime Ministers and Presidents are often just pawns in the game. President Theodore Roosevelt stated: “Behind the ostensible government sits enthroned an invisible government owing no allegiance and acknowledging no responsibility to the people. To destroy this invisible government ... is the first task of the statesmanship of today”.<sup>18</sup> Woodrow Wilson confessed that “there is a power somewhere so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive, that [men] better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it”.<sup>19</sup>

The European Union is already well along that road toward regional amalgamation. The EU is taking on the shape and extent of the ancient Roman Empire as it draws its members continually into closer association, and begins to challenge the US in its super power status. North America beginning with NAFTA has started that same process rolling. In Africa and Asia and elsewhere other regions are in various stages of development along that same road. As President Carter’s man Brzezinski stated in his seminal 1970 work,; Between Two Ages, “the nation-state is gradually yielding its sovereignty”. Odd for an American diplomat, one should think, in that his words echoed those of Lenin and Stalin who called for making national loyalties subservient to regional ones in the inevitable drive toward world government. So it all goes, - just as the Scriptures say!<sup>20</sup>

New Age guru and House of Philosophy head, Alice Bailey, wrote in her 1957 tome, The Externalization of the Hierarchy, that on the way to world government, the globe would first be organized into several Spheres of Influence.

It was in 1974 that Mesrobian & Pestel gave details of the plan, revealing in their work, Mankind At The Turning Point, that the world was to be divided into 10 'Super Nation States' Both the European Union and a united North America were a part of that plan.<sup>21</sup> Let's start by taking a look at the EU, the region farthest along the road to becoming a 'Super Nation'.

Europe Leads The Way

The New World Order, it seems, will be built on the European model. That model calls for a gradual, almost imperceptible advance toward globalization, where each step seems the natural and logically necessary next step. French Politician Jean Monnet was among the pioneers of the movement, that first began in the years following the First World War. His vision sought the unification of over 100 countries. Dr Thomas Ice describes it thus: "Monnet's method was to propose a seemingly minor treaty" in which "was hidden a principal, which once made law, opened the door to a much larger application and expansion of the granted power".<sup>22</sup> That thought became mainstream among European thinkers. By 1946, even Winston Churchill was calling for a "United States of Europe" to "recreate the European family".<sup>23</sup>

What has emerged from all of this is a European Union of 25 nations, with no internal borders to speak of, that is fast forming a united foreign policy and working toward a unified military. According to the Centre for European Reform, the EU hopes eventually to consist of "109 nations, including North and South America". Even now, as promoted by Foreign Policy head, Javier Solana, the European Government is promoting a "Neighborhood Policy", which seeks to emulate the borders of the old Roman Empire, by associating with the likes of Egypt and North Africa.<sup>24</sup> There have even been discussions with Israel. Solana is working toward a Free Trade Zone that would take in the entire Mediterranean region; - to be set to go by 2010. But it does not stop even there, President Clinton's Secretary of State Warren Christopher publicly set out the "long term objective" of integrating "the economies of North America and Europe". Clinton Administration ally, then Senator Joe Biden, described two goals for the White House to pursue: Turning NATO into a "military instrument" of the UN and "the creation of a new world order".<sup>25</sup> Just how far President Clinton was willing to take his country in pursuit of those goals can be seen in the working out of the Yugoslav / Kosovo crisis of the 1990's.

Now the Carnegie Endowment is one of those instruments of the movers and shakers that will produce academic papers to justify changes and new directions in Western, especially US foreign policy. In the early 1990's they produced two such reports, -[one of them authored by Clintonian heavyweights Madeleine Albright, David Gergen and Admiral Crowe] - that called for American involvement and intervention when "a self-determination claim...becomes a humanitarian crisis". What happened next, was revealed by the Canadian Ambassador to Yugoslavia years after the fact. "NATO countries were inciting violence in Kosovo and attempting to destabilize the Serbian province". Britain sent Special Armed Forces to arm and train the Kosovo rebels they were creating. With British support they began a campaign of assassination, murder and chaos. NATO of course, blamed Yugoslavia entirely, conducting bombing raids until that country gave in to Western demands. Then, in the words of Ambassador James Bissett: "NATO then stood by and submissively allowed the KLA (Kosovo Liberation Army), to murder, pillage and burn".<sup>26</sup> It seems the US and NATO were willing to go to great lengths to create their New World Order.

Paradoxically, in its intervention into the Balkans, America and the Europeans were willing to take on radical Islamist forces there as allies. These were the ideological soul-mates of Osama bin Laden's al-Qaeda forces; - the sworn enemies of the West, - and all that it purportedly stood for. Dr Dennis Cuddy draws the connections for us. The de facto head of the EU at the time, Javier Solana, - was supported by the likes of Bill Clinton and committed one-worlder Strobe Talbot. Richard Gardiner, another administration crony revealed the zeitgeist behind their internationalist thinking years before, - writing in 1974 about making "an end run around national sovereignty, eroding it piece by piece".<sup>27</sup>

All of this however, is part of a plan of greater scope. It is the whole world they seek. Recall the words of Revelation 17:13: “They have one purpose and will give their power and authority to the beast.” The goal of the Illumined Elites is the total integration of all the peoples of the world into one great global system. All the way back in 1959, a report financed by the Rockefeller Brothers Fund, - The Mid-Century Challenge to US Foreign Policy laid out their goals for all who would see. “We cannot escape, and indeed should welcome, the task of helping to shape a new world order in all its dimensions – spiritual, economic, political, social”.<sup>28</sup> That is the same Satanic vision that Scripture tells us will drive the Antichrist during the short reign of his kingdom at the End of Days. It is unfolding before our eyes.
