ECONOMICS & REVOLUTION – PART XXIII

We've covered a lot of territory in this series, so now its time to begin to pull things together. The machinations of secretive economic powers informed by more secretive fraternal organizations - and stealthily hidden ultra-radical administration advisors posing as "mainstream bureaucrats", is a very real phenomenon. THINGS ARE HAPPENING, that signal a massive Transformation in what it will mean to be American. Without a 180 degree course correction we will wander into an unrecognizable future – all driven by the economics of revolution.

THE ECONOMICS OF REVOLUTION

“What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done, and there is nothing new under the sun.”
(Ecclesiastes 1:9) (ESV)

Sometimes there is something that slaps us in the head – that lets us know – deep down in our knower – the reality of a situation. It seems, that even in writing about the unfolding situation – sometimes – that reality does not take hold. Week after week in this newsletter we write of heady / crazy things, outside the realm of normal thought...for that is where the evidence leads us. Yet it is still difficult sometimes to get our heads around the bizarre conclusions to which we are led. I don't know what brought that head slap for Ambrose Evans Pritchard, one of the most respected and mainstream economic writers in the UK. But it was the fact that he had one, that contributed to the realization that the outlines of what we are witnessing is very real indeed. On September 27, 2010, Ambrose Evans-Pritchard apologized to the world. He begins a recent column in the UK's Telegraph, “I apologise to readers around the world for having defended the emergency stimulus policies of the US Federal Reserve, and for arguing like an imbecile naif that the Fed would not succumb to drug addiction, political abuse, and mad intoxicated debauchery, once it began taking its first shots of quantitative easing.” [“Quantitative easing” basically means to just print money out of thin air.] He later adds an apology to “all those hillsmen in Idaho, with their Colt 45s and boxes of krugerrands, who sent furious emails to the Telegraph accusing me of defending a hyperinflating establishment cabal- [they] were right all along. The Fed is indeed out of control.”¹ Even good souls in the Establishment are beginning to see the light. Economics is become the chosen tool of revolution. His was not the only mainstream voice to hue and cry in the night. Writing in the Wall Street Journal, Walter Williams outlined the intellectual war that is being waged by the “nation's elite and news media” against what they view as the “racist, homophobic, xenophobic, Islamophobic, mean spirited and insensitive” citizens who would dare to defend Constitutional government and God-centered moral values. The media attack paints these Neanderthal Americans as “crazy” for opposing gay marriage or strict immigration enforcement or a mosque on Ground Zero or whatever. Williams concludes by siding with the views of Charles Krauthammer, referencing the fact that “more Americans have wised up” to this transformational agenda.²

The attack is more coordinated than one might think. Britain's Economist magazine trashed both the American Constitution and its supporters. “Indeed, there is something infantile in the belief of the constitution-worshippers that the complex political arguments of today can be settled by simple fidelity to a document written in the 18th century.”³ Foreign Policy magazine, the mouthpiece of the globalist Council on Foreign Relations, staked out a similar position. Former CFR member Admiral Chester Ward once warned that that organization wants “to bring about the surrender of the sovereignty of the national independence of the United States.” Professor Carroll Quigley, - the official and approved historian of the movement – blithely admitted in his landmark work, Tragedy and Hope, that “The CFR is the American Branch of a society which originated in England, and which believes that national boundaries should be obliterated, and a one-world rule established.” Writing in Inforwars, Kurt Nimmo documented the source of the bias emanating from the media. “The Economist is owned by members of the Rothschild banking family of England. It is run by the Economist Group, a known CIA front.” Nimmo also ties the Washington Post to the CIA's Project Mockingbird, a program designed to infiltrate both foreign and domestic media – influencing them to give only the approved slant. According to Deborah Davis in her history of the Washington Post entitled Katherine the Great, “By the early 1950s, Wisner 'owned' respected members of the New York Times, Newsweek, CBS and other communications vehicles.” In other words: The FIX was ...and is ... in.^{4 5 6}

That point – the one about the FIX being in – is becoming the theme of more and more commentators as they observe the events of the last couple of years. And where it will likely end, – [with just a little disagreement as to the gory details] – is becoming increasingly clear. Futurist Gerald Celente sees parallels with the fading British Empire as “foreign entanglements” combine with a declining economy to make even secessionist movements and disunion a very real possibility.⁷ Giordano Bruno notes how central banks around the world are divesting themselves of US debt – [too risky, you know] – and thereby putting more pressure on a weakened US dollar. Studying the “history of economic collapses, Bruno notes that even the recent stock rally has its precedent in the market behavior that marked the period just before the low point of the Great Depression. He opens an article with this conclusion: “Our current economy is a shell game. A grand fraud designed to siphon more and more tangible wealth (not fiat wealth) from the average person and transport it post-haste into the silk lined pockets of a corporate banking minority. The goal? To reduce the self sufficiency of American citizens to the point of total fiscal and social dependence on the top 1% richest men in the world.” Mr Bruno describes the bailouts and ‘quantitative easing’ as just a “wealth transference” to “a globalist entity like Goldman Sachs or AIG.”⁸

Perhaps the most perplexing part of the whole scenario that has unfolded over the last couple of years is how analysts like Celente & Jim Rogers & Peter Schiff & Bruno & others have been able to predict almost exactly the unfolding details of the current crisis. This ‘recovery’ that we’re in is a façade. It is but debt-driven fakery. Why haven’t the PTB, the international bankers, the ‘smartest men on the planet’ been able to see what was on the horizon? Back in August of 2010, Bruno asserted that “BOTH major parties are owned and operated by global banks.” This series of ours – Economics And Revolution - that began so many months ago, has given ample evidence that leads to this same conclusion. Here are Bruno’s words again. “Elements of the U.S. Government including almost every president since 1912 have not only turned a blind eye to Globalist activities, they have offered their full support to the bankers.” The party has mattered not! Here’s his explanation for it. “Elites destroy cultures to make way for new philosophies; their philosophies. Its not so much ‘conspiracy theory’ as it is a widely admitted methodology. Corporate globalists believe in global government on their terms and they barely try to hide it.” With the Western public so lost in their own selfishness, they hardly have to anymore.⁹

Max Keiser, who predicted the Fannie & Freddie collapse back in 2004, chimes in with the same theme. He calls it a “Financial Holocaust...designed to destroy the American middle class.”¹⁰ The World’s Financial Elite have paradoxically enlisted the support of the social revolutionaries as a tool with which to effect the ‘destruction of the bourgeoisie’. As JR Nyquist explains: “An attempt to destroy a political system necessarily coincides with an attempt to destroy the economy of that system. Economic sabotage...is happening all around us.” Nyquist asserts that in the name of “social justice”, “greater and greater demands are placed upon the productive citizen – [the middle class] – to provide for the unproductive.” This strategy in itself is a product of Communism. As Lenin would have it, they would use “capitalism to destroy capitalism”.¹¹ Are these the prattling of madmen or do they hold substance? Sadly, not! I believe without doubt that they hold substance. But here’s the all-important caveat. It is the PTB that are in turn using Communism / Socialism as a tool to rework political society in the image that they have long ago designed. We’ve chronicled here - in this series – how Wall Street was behind the revolutions of the last century; in Russia, and Nazi Germany and so on. Again, the PTB, the One Worlders, the Illuminized Elite are using the transformers to transform things to their own design. Now the target is America and the West.

Author David DeGraw seems to concur with much of this analysis. The “root cause” of all this chaos is not an “unforeseen economic crash that appeared out of the blue,” but a “strategic economic attack on the existence of a middle class and democracy worldwide. The stock market and economy have become weapons of mass oppression manipulated by an imperial banking cartel.” This dollar imperialism was birthed after World War II, and fostered by the CIA and the IMF. The International Monetary Fund has wielded that weapon deftly since, subjugating second and third world nations to the collective will of the moneyed elite. Now they have set their sights on the biggest target of all; - The United States and its developed allies. Thus “trillions of our tax dollars have been looted by Wall Street, endless wars...[and] subsidies for the most profitable global corporations.” Thus they build what could be called their greatest monument, the neo-feudal society that will serve as the vehicle for their future, coming world leader. Former World Bank Big Whig turned whistleblower, and Nobel Prize winning economist Joseph Stiglitz explains how it all works. When the IMF comes in to rescue a country, it forces certain conditions upon that nation that result in “market based pricing”. In other words, the cost of all the essentials; food, water and fuel goes up. This often leads to “social unrest” followed by a reaction by the PTB to restore order. Next comes the end game. The country becomes a New Order fiefdom of the emerging “neo-feudal system of severe debt and poverty.” Even now, the IMF is pushing cutbacks in healthcare, pensions and other services – for us. Our massive, unrelenting debt has made us vulnerable to the wooing of the international banking cartel.

But what will bring the Revolution should it come? As the economy fails, - (and those we have quoted above - all believe it will) – the government’s ability to maintain the life-sustaining safety nets will become strained to the breaking point. A desperate population will be pressured to submit to the new economic reality with a new political order. Will the body politic just lay down and submit? The government does not think so. As noted here before, the Pentagon is preparing for “widespread civil violence” and “violent strategic dislocation inside the United States.” Military force through martial law may be the only remedy the governments has to maintain order – to continue in power. National Security Director Dennis Blair sees the “global economic crisis and its geopolitical implications” as even a greater threat than terrorism. That’s why the Defense Department is preparing for the “use of military force against hostile groups inside the United States.”¹² This is the new America that is taking shape. And it is happening here – but all around the globe. We see it happening in Europe even now as mobs take to the streets to protect their precious benefits against necessary fiscal cuts.

**** ****

Now if you’ve stayed with us for this entire series you may have realized that we’ve circled around back to the beginning. The bottom line is this. The Global Elites are instituting an orchestrated and calibrated chaos. Its endgame is Global Governance – total authority in the economic and political and spiritual realms. Each of those areas will support the other in this new feudal / fascist system. The prime vehicle for this transformation is revolution; peaceful or otherwise. Revolutions are brought by fear and fear by chaos and uncertainty. And these conditions can be created by the total manipulation of the economy. If revolution comes – it will come with the sole purpose of putting it down and instituting more stringent government controls and – eventually – a One World Government. That government will oversee a feudal system exercising more control than could ever have been imagined before. [The over one million citizens of Leon, Mexico are getting a taste of what’s to come in the way of control. Iris scanning technology is being installed that will identify them using an eye scan. In the next three years the technology will be used rolled out by banks, public transport and merchants. Jeff Carter of the company providing the technology, Global Rainmakers Inc, had this to say about what’s to come. “Every person, place, and thing on this planet will be connected [to the iris system] within the next 10 years.” That’s a sobering thought for those who know their prophecy. Jesus tells us through John the Revelator that this total control will be instituted by the world system – the Beast – during the soon coming Tribulation. “He also forced everyone, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on his right hand or on his forehead, so that no one could buy or sell unless he had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of his name.” (Revelation 13:16-17) (NIV)]

So here’s what we set out to establish way back in PART II of this series – and I believe we’ve made our case.]

- Revolutions Are Planned - There is a symbiotic relationship between economics and revolution. In fact, it’s been the manipulation of the perception of economic realities that has fed all revolutionary movements dating back to the French Revolution and including 1848, and the Russian Revolution. It is the intention of the Illuminati to feed this End Times Revolution until they accomplish their ends. The Illuminati have told us how they are willing to use not only financial collapse, but wars and terrors etc to bring about their ends.
- There Is A Relationship Between Revolutions & Satanism – Communism’s authors, Marx and Engels were both Satanists.¹³ So too was the National Socialist revolutionary, Adolph Hitler. The pagan overtones of Nazism as well as the blatant atheism of Communism are both expressions of the Satanic, evidenced by the murderous history that ended the lives of hundreds of millions of souls under those regimes.
- The Global Elites Are Moving Us Toward A Form of International Fascism – World Government will be routed through regionalism and brought about as the natural reaction to the chaos that the PTB are allowing or creating themselves – and feeding for their own purposes.
- The Collapse Is Not Inevitable – But It Is Chosen – The Financial crisis was created by the Global Elites and it will be calibrated to achieve the effect they want. Eventually that will mean One World Government.¹⁴
- It Will Be Religion That Drives The Revolution – A revived Babylonian-Paganism is the ultimate goal. Alice Bailey called it the externalization of the hierarchy. Revelation 13:4 puts it like this: “Men worshiped the dragon because he had given authority to the beast, and they also worshiped the beast and asked, ‘Who is like the beast? Who can make war against him?’” (NIV) The coming New World Order will have a religious underpinning that will in some sick way, attempt to make sense of events.

Now the world they are building will come to pass: For thus say the Scriptures. Revelation 17:12-13 tells us, “The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority for one hour as kings with the beast. These are of one mind, and they will give their power and authority to the beast.” So we see how this will operate in the economic and now the political realms. Now here’s the spiritual take. The Antichrist will come on the scene as the human expression of the World System that is in rebellion to God – as it has been since the days of the Tower of Babel. He will derive his power from Satan himself. “The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority.” (Revelation 13:2) And through this human expression of evil, Satan himself will finally - for a short and empty time – achieve his goal of receiving the honor and worship due only God. “So they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, “Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?” This will also mark the fulfillment of the collective dream of the Secret Societies [Freemasons etc] and the Illuminati. Now this Antichrist will be served by a False Prophet who will unite the world’s religions in giving honor to OI’ AC. “Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon...He performs great signs, so that he even makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men. And he deceives those who dwell on the earth by those signs which he was granted to do in the sight of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword and lived. He was granted power to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed.” (Revelation 13:11, 13-15)

Now that’s the plan. The forces of the Antichrist are building that world right now. We cannot say how long the Lord may tarry. Yet, if we are reading the signs correctly: We’re on the cusp of the End of the Age!

WHERE’S GOD ?

It’s seems God has been turning up missing lately. That is - in the words of the President and his progressive allies...when it comes to our history as enunciated in our founding documents. The President began by ‘dissing’ our third president and primary author of the Declaration of Independence, Thomas Jefferson, by twice misquoting that document in recent speeches. Here’s what President Obama said. “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, endowed with certain inalienable rights: life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.” But there is something missing from that would-be quote; small but highly significant. What Jefferson really wrote, and what become our founding document is worded like this. “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.” And recall that this happened more than once. Hardly an oversight! Then there’s this. The American Constitution Society for Law and Policy was at an event distributing copies of our foundational documents including Lincoln’s Gettysburg Address. Only that had a little issue also. This extremely ‘progressive’ organization had taken the time to alter Lincoln’s writing. They had removed the words “under God” from the peroration, which reads in part, “That this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom.” [Simple oversight, I’m sure!] And thus we see the plan. Orwell’s 1984 anticipated such antics well. If you don’t like history: Just change it. That’s what they did under the Communists in the Soviet Union too!¹⁵
