AS IN THE DAYS OF NOAH – PART II

In PART I we got a peek of what 'Science' has planned for our future. It is chillingly frightening. The vision is one of Mankind being re-created according to our own design. To philosophers and twisted social / political scientists this is a dream come true; - our entire species re-engineered according to specs. This is part of the dream publicly put forward by 'forward thinking' one-worlders and Illuminati types since the 19th century at least; - a world run by a technocratic elite...for the benefit of all mankind...of course.

ON 'HUMANESS' & REBELLION

“And they said, ‘Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top is in the heavens; let us make a name for ourselves’...And the LORD said, ‘Indeed the people are one and they all have one language, and this is what they begin to do; now nothing that they propose to do will be withheld from them.’” (Genesis 11:4 & 11)

We've begun to look at what the Transhumanists are up to. It is a step beyond what we should imagine. Scientists have come to believe that anything is possible. Tom Horn speaks of the “wholesale redesign of humans, including genetic integration with other life-forms – plants, animals and synthetic creations.” That's all from the field of genetics. On another front he writes of “the assimilation of man with machine intelligence.” He quotes computer scientist Vernor Vinge – [love the ginger ale] - as to its import. Once science is able to achieve “the technological means to create superhuman intelligence, shortly after, the human era will be ended.”¹ And even as I write this, stories are entering the ether that punctuate this reality. From Australia: Scientists brag that they can genetically create ‘whatever animal you want to eat’. These are genetically engineered animals. Patent applications are already being applied for. Now they await only the approval of governments.² Elsewhere, another researcher is working on ‘machines that daydream’. He's talking about a “free thinking”, emotional computer; - one that will “model the way human beings reason...even understanding how human beings behave.”³

All of this integration between man-fabricated machines – [artificial intelligence (AI)] – along with the creations of laboratory chimeras – mixtures of species that sometimes even cross the line between plant and animal – begs the most important of questions. What does it truly mean to be human? The Bible, along with just about all of the ancient cultures had mythologies that spoke of such cross bred monsters. It's from the ancient Greek that we get our word ‘chimera’, describing these creations. In mythology they were often represented by monstrous combinations of lions & goat, or the satyr, man & horse. In today's world it is very real, and it is found in a petrie dish. The online dictionary blithely defines it as, “An organism, organ, or part consisting of two or more tissues of different genetic composition, produced as a result of organ transplant, grafting, or genetic engineering.”⁴ We're living that future, even now! Recall last time how we talked about giving future humans the enhanced capabilities of some animals such as the ability to “smell” tumors or “sense” earthquake. However, amidst all this ‘science’ we're ignoring the most important of dimensions; - that of the spiritual. Horn again points out that some animals are even credited with the ability to “see into the spirit world.” A scriptural example would be Balaam's ass. So some with knowledge of the occult are even now using ‘spiritual technology’ – certain psychoactive drugs for instance – to open “supernatural gateways that exist within the mind.” Even publications who support the notion of transhumanism, have acknowledged that a danger exists that this new that this new science could – in the words of Tom Horn again – “open the door to unseen intelligence.”^{5 6} Ray Kurzweil summarizes the movement perhaps in the following terms. It’s ultimate effect will be to “go beyond the powers of the material world.”⁷

This is a combination of the forces of science – which claims to be the only arbiter of truth – with those of post-modernism – which asserts that there is no truth – or that we make our own. Leon Kass, the former head of the President’s Council on Bioethics, has spoken to the heart of the issue. “First, there is a tendency among those with a scientific world view to believe that science has a monopoly on the truth about the way things are. But science has great power as a means of gaining knowledge only because it has left out many of the important questions. Its view of the world is value- neutral. It deliberately doesn't ask questions about the what and the why of things. It only asks how they work. This is at best a partial knowledge of the world masquerading as the whole. So the belief that the only things that are real are matter, energy and motion, that is a philosophical kind of imperialism, which we have been suffering under increasingly for centuries.”

After setting the stage, Kass went on to define the implications of these new technologies. *“This is terribly important. All of the boundaries are up for grabs. All of the boundaries that have defined us as human beings, boundaries between a human being and an animal and between a human being and a super human being or a god. The boundaries of life, the boundaries of death....We may be able to do new things, but it will no longer be clear who is the 'we' doing them....These questions are the questions of the 21st century and nothing is more important.”*⁸

Now, where this is all headed can get pretty crazy, depending on who you listen to. One Dr James Hughes wants to create ‘transgenic chimps’, raising their cognitive aptitudes so that they might achieve “personhood”. In this world they would even be afforded ‘constitutional protections’. The days of human exceptionalism are fast fleeting. But this flies in the face of God’s plan for His creation.⁹ Genesis 1:26: “Then God said, “Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness.” We are made in the image and likeness of the Holy God, Creator of the Universe. And he has given us dominion over the earth. It is our garden to till until He returns. “Then God blessed them, and God said to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it; have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that moves on the earth.'” (Genesis 1:28)

Yet modern science has turned the table 180 degrees from that divine program. This new spiritual game would permanently alter not only our DNA but that of all of God’s creation as it naturally invaded the environment. The gene pool – including that of human beings – would be permanently contaminated. Horn again: It would eventually eliminate “humanity as we know it.”¹⁰ This was the dream, purpose and intent of the rebellious angels – and their Nephilim progeny – that we introduced in PART I of this series.

Now Tom Horn, who covers this subject better than this newsletter could even dream of, - quotes the 19th century English theologian George Hawkins Pember in making the case for the return of the Nephilim as the most ‘fearful sign’ of the impending Day of the Lord, through the “appearance upon the earth of beings from the Principality of the Air, and their unlawful intercourse with the human race.” Now, part of that unlawful intercourse would seem to be the alteration of its make-up. They would pollute the divine creation by changing it in such a way that it would no longer reflect the fact that man was made in the image of God.¹¹ All of today’s genetic manipulation may have had its precedent in the ancient past. Just as many theologians take the view that the Nephilim / rebellious angels had the purpose of corrupting the human race in order to prevent appearance of the God-man Messiah. So too, an increasing number are beginning to believe that that corruption extended down to all of the created order. We can find an interesting corroborative source for this line of thought in the extra-biblical literature of the Jews. The fourth chapter of the Book of Jasher – referred to in the Bible in both Joshua and Second Samuel – has an interesting passage that tends to support this theory. [Now don't get me wrong. We all know Jasher is NOT the Bible – just supportive evidence.] Here's the quote from Jasher 4:18; *“...and the sons of men in those days took from the cattle of the earth, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air, and taught the mixture of animals of one species with the other, in order therewith to provoke the Lord; and God saw the whole earth and it was corrupt, for all flesh had corrupted its ways upon earth, all men and all animals.”*¹²

So just what is going on? Let's return to a scripture we looked at last time. Genesis 6:2: “The sons of God saw the daughters of men that they [were] fair.” (KJV) Mr Horn quotes the Interlinear Hebrew Bible for the same passage. “The [b'nai ha Elohim] saw the daughters of Adam, that they were fit extensions.” The idea is this. At least some of Lucifer's rebelling hoard saw human genetic material as an entry point into God's creation. Their purpose: To destroy it. They seek, in the process, to destroy mankind's only hope for salvation. The Bible addresses just how God is dealing with this situation in the Book of Jude, (1:6). “And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.” This whole phenomenon of the mixing of created angelic beings (gods with a small g) is a very consistent story among ancient cultures. Mythology is full of gods and demigods that mix with, and often forcibly procreate with mankind, creating beings that were neither gods nor man. The Titans – giants of Greek tradition – are the cultural corollary of the Hebrew Nephilim, or the “giants” of Genesis 6.¹³ As too was Nimrod, the founder of Babylon, the builder of the Tower of Babel and the leader of that major rebellion against God. According to the ancient myths, he is said to be 2/3 god and 1/3 man.¹⁴ Along with his wife Semiramis, he is the accepted founder of paganism and all the occult religions.¹⁵ And that's where, it seems, just where God's judgment will emanate from in the Last Days. Zechariah 5 tells us of a house being built for the woman “Wickedness” in the “land of Shinar”, (or plains of Babylon). Referencing devils and satyrs, the Greek Translation of the Old Testament called the Septuagint makes this connection between Babylon, Occultism and God's judgment very nicely in Esias (Isaiah) 13:21-22. It describes a coming time of judgment against the evil that is Babylon. “But wild beasts shall rest there; and the houses shall be filled with howling; and monsters shall rest there, and devils shall dance there, and satyrs shall dwell there; and hedgehogs shall make their nests in their houses. It will come soon, and will not tarry.”

Revelation chapter 9 lays out for us a bit of the Last Days scenario regarding this judgment. It describes how an angel is given a key and the “bottomless pit” is opened. Out of it come what the Scripture calls “scorpions” and what are obviously satanic creatures. “And they had as king over them the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, but in Greek he has the name Apollyon.” (Revelation 9:11) Tom Horn believes “the Antichrist is the reincarnation of the ancient demon Apollo –(the Old Testament Nimrod). In other words, this Apollyon or Apollo will come to – inhabit if you will – the coming “man of sin”. So this rebellion – which had its origins thousands of years ago in Babylon – under the influence of the Lucifer's rebellious minions – will reach its peak during the soon-coming Tribulation – under the man we call Antichrist. This will be Satan's grandest hour – in his eyes. It has been his ageless ambition to take the place of the Most High God. Isaiah 14:13-14 quotes him thus. “I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit on the mount of the congregation On the farthest sides of the north; I will ascend above the heights of the clouds, I will be like the Most High.” Through his human – (or part human proxy) – he will orchestrate and organize his rebellion – ultimately bringing the judgment of God – [called the Day of the Lord] - upon both himself and his willing earthly followers. “Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.” (2Thessalonians 2:3-4) And in that war against God, he will enlist support among those who willingly reject ultimate TRUTH. Here is that endgame. “And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.” (2Thessalonians 3:8-12)

YADAS

PALESTINE SOON ? – World Net Daily is reporting that the Obama administration is involved in intense negotiations that aim to draw the outlines of a Palestinian State within a couple of months. Now that likely will not happen...but things are moving in that prophetic direction. The French Foreign Minister announced that France would not ‘rule out’ the declaration of a state by the UN...no matter what Israel says. And the US State Department is saying that a proposal to have Israel move back to pre-1967 lines “is exactly the right conversation” to have. But Fatah is not satisfied with the progress and wants to put on more pressure. To that end, they are considering bringing back the Intifadah - the violent struggle with Israel. Yet, even while that story is fresh on the wires, an AP report tells us that Abbas offered to terminate “all historic claims against Israel once they establish their state in the lands Israel occupied in the 1967 Mideast War.” If true, that would mean an end to the demand for the ‘Right of Return’, that would send the surviving refugees from the original 1948 War along with their descendents – millions of Arabs in all – into Israel proper. The enormity of that concession, the Palestinians feel, might just lead to the establishment of their longed-for Palestine. It will however, all be for naught. The kingdom proclaimed will be but an empty shell. This is first of all, and in its essence, not Israel’s land so much as it is God’s land; He long ago has established its human ownership. Isaiah 34:12 gives us the fate of that exercise in political nothingness. “They shall call its nobles to the kingdom, But none shall be there, and all its princes shall be nothing.”^{16 17 18 19 20}

THE IRANIAN FACTOR – We all know that, according to God’s Word, Persia (Iran) is going to be a big player in End Times events. And so they continue to play that role as things move inexorably toward their ordained conclusion. So a visit to Lebanon by Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad came as no surprise. Ahmadinejad engaged in high-level political theater in his visit, pronouncing the usual ‘death to Israel’ type mantras at the appropriate times to thousands of adoring fans. Shortly after returning, the President Ahmadinejad warned: “Grounds are being prepared for the Zionist regime to go to hell soon and any country supporting this regime will join it on its trip to hell as well.” [That Mahmoud has really got a way with words, doesn’t he?] On a more concrete front, we find that Washington is concerned that Chinese firms are aiding Iran in their quest for a homegrown nuclear arsenal. And Tehran may yet get the state-of-the-art Russian-made SA-3 interceptor missiles – via the good offices of Venezuela.^{21 22 23 24}

TERROR ALERTS – We’ve got a couple of newer ones. The Saudis have let the French know about al-Qaeda plans they uncovered in the Arabian Peninsula regarding a threat to the French Republic. [Don’t forget, al-Qaeda seem to be ‘equal opportunity terrorists’. They were also threatening to assassinate Ahmadinejad while on his visit to Lebanon.] While here in the US, “Senior US officials’ believe that the Pakistani Taliban has planted another operative inside the country after the thwarted Times Square bombing attempt.”^{25 26}
