THE EMERGING CALIPHATE

[IT'S NOT JUST FOR 'CONSPIRACY NUTS' ANYMORE !]

OK! Here's the deal. Ever since Tunisia and Egypt there are a group of us out there – (a lot of us steeped in the study of Biblical prophecy) – that are saying: 'This Democracy thing that we're seeing emerge in the Middle East just ain't what it seems to be. Watch out for the Muslim Brotherhood....because the ultimate goal in all of this is the establishment of a Muslim Caliphate – a multi-state entity adhering to Sharia Law and dedicated to the principles of aggressive, radical Islam.' And lots of folks in the mainstream media have been calling us crazy...but now we have confirmation ...in their own words. That's not all! There is another connection that makes developments there; very interesting indeed!

THERE'S SOMETHING HAPPENING HERE

There definitely is something 'happening here' – and perhaps it just got a little clearer. The revolutionary movement continues across the region. The Libyan civil war is at the forefront, the rebel fortunes surging and ebbing daily. Terrorists and 'freedom fighters' continue to agitate for an Islamic state in Yemen. The Prime Minister's office is besieged in the three-week old protests in Bahrain, home of the US 5th Fleet. In Iraq protests in the southern oil port of Basra led to the bombing of a US military convoy and the use of water cannon against the protesters by Iraqi security forces. On the fringe, in Pakistan, a government minister who was Catholic, was assassinated by militants for not supporting the blasphemy law. Under that law, insulting the Koran, is punishable by up to life in prison. And as I write this, opposition forces have scheduled five days of demonstrations in Saudi Arabia to climax in Riyadh on Friday, March 11th. Anticipating trouble the Kingdom has banned all protests and deployed troops across the country. In addition the UK's Telegraph reports that the Saudis have told Bahrain they must deal with the protests in that country or Saudi forces will do it for them. The protests in the Kingdom were encouraged by a warning from Iranian officials and addressed to the Saudi government. All of this in a nation vital to the economies of the US and the West! The Saudi's are the world's largest exporter of oil and sit on about 20% of the global reserves. <sup>1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9</sup>

But what in the world does all this mean? There is definitely more to this than some spontaneous movement of democratic principles; despite what TIME Magazine and other stalwarts of the Left-leaning mainstream media would have us believe. There is a game being played here that is deeper, darker and more sinister than what is generally being presented. Defense Secretary Gates is reported to have undertaken an emergency mission to Cairo "to help Egypt's military rulers regain control of a situation which is slipping into the hands of the increasingly radicalized protesters."<sup>10</sup> And the head of Hamas, the ultra-radical wing of the Palestinian movement that was birthed from the ranks of the Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood, told Agence France Press that the revolution "in Egypt and Tunisia has given us back our lives."<sup>11</sup> Then add this: Egyptian special forces are quiet allies of the Libyan rebels, participating in the revolt there; spreading the revolution, as it were.<sup>12</sup> That's Egypt and it's a big deal – but even bigger than that is the brewing trouble in Saudi Arabia. Foreign Policy, the magazine of the Council on Foreign Relations, tells us that "Saudi Arabia is ripe for revolution." And that cannot be a good thing for the price of oil and the economies of Europe and the US. Just as in the other corrupt nations of the region, extremists are waiting to exploit the situation. Al-Qaeda retains a presence in the kingdom that is divided between relatively liberal and ultra-Islamic. The author Madawi Al-Rasheed tells us that “when the Saudis rise they will change the face of the Arab world.”<sup>13</sup> But how?

Prophecy scholar Joel Richardson sees the eventual emergence of what he calls the Neo-Ottoman Caliphate, as Turkey, with the acquiescence of US – moves in to fill the power vacuum that will result. Joel’s been right before. But the ‘new’ Turkish model may be more ‘democratic’ but is at the same time increasingly violent, based on their Prime Minister’s “vitriolic rhetoric toward Israel.”<sup>14</sup> Just as the Bible predicts, Turkey – [along with Iran and a host of other now-Muslim states] - will be a Last Days invader of Israel in the Magog invasion found in Ezekiel 38.

But perhaps most interesting about all of this is how it all plays into the Islamic view of the End Times written of in their holy writings found in the Koran and the Hadith. Islamic tradition posits a coming messiah figure called the Mahdi. He will come in the time of the end, unite with Issa – (the Muslim name for Jesus) – unite the Muslim world, and conquer and rule from Jerusalem. In fact it says that he will rule the entire world for seven years – hunting down Jews and Christians as infidels. It is this figure that President Ahmadinejad has claimed to somehow spiritually communed with. The Iranian president has pledged to work for the coming of this Mahdi, even to create the chaos that they believe is necessary to usher in his coming. And remarkably, the description given of this Islamic messiah is the exact mirror image that the Bible gives to the man who will occupy the office of Antichrist. And this Issa (false Jesus) figure – [who they say will immediately deny that he is God’s Son and that he died on the cross] – could conceivably serve as the False Prophet of Revelation. But now all of this presupposes that Islam will unite under the office of the Mahdi.

So it is interesting to note that Louis Farrakhan, head of the Nation of Islam, weighed in on the matter in a recent speech. First, looking at the revolution spreading across the Arab world he warned the United States, “what you see happening here...you’d better prepare because it will be coming to your door.” Then he gave this dark appraisal. It echoes the words of Ahmadinejad who believes that the Mahdi is already in the world, ready to make his appearance. “This is a sign that the Great Mahdi that the Muslim world has been looking for is present in the world. That the Christ that you hoped for, the Christ that we longed for, is present in the world. And all tyrants will be set down. God is stimulating the rise of the masses. And soon it will come to these shores, indeed it has already begun.”<sup>15 16</sup>

Thus the Mahdi! And now, the Caliphate! Here are the words of an Arab think tank as reported by Al-Jazeera. Noting how the present political architecture of the Arab world was but the product of early 20th century European colonialism, author Mohammed Khan asks; “Given this recent history, then, is the idea of a borderless Middle East still viable?” He goes on to make the case for a pan-Islamic caliphate. “Borders are increasingly irrelevant in this new equation ... the political awakening in the region may be conducive to a completely different set of political and economic realities ... The nation state as we know it, as it was imposed on the region by colonial powers, is ripe for change. The unleashing of people power has now opened up new possibilities for mapping the Arab world's future. While protesters across the region have been waving their respective national flags, the cause for which they are fighting and risking their lives extends well beyond their immediate borders.”<sup>17 18</sup>

But not only would such a development fulfill Islamic prophetic expectations – but would also conform to the agenda of the Illuminati / New World Order types that pull the strings behind the scenes. Back in 1974 the Club of Rome published a book by Mihajlo Mesarovic & Eduard Pestel, called Mankind at the Turning Point, which revealed their plans to divide the globe into 10 supra-national regions. North America and Europe were labeled Nations #1 & #2. North Africa and the Middle East is to comprise Nation #7. [That book also gave us the wonderful and revealing quote: “The Earth has cancer and the cancer is Man”. But I digress.]<sup>19</sup> Through the EU, the surreptitious moves toward establishing a North American Union, the emerging unions in Africa and South America – and now in the Middle East – we are witnessing the realization of that globalist dream. That is precisely what the Scriptures say will occur in the Last Days, when the Antichrist comes to power. “The ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but who for one hour will receive authority as kings along with the beast. They have one purpose and will give their power and authority to the beast.” That time may be near at hand!

THE DEPTHS OF DECEPTION

Sometimes it's hard to tell the good guys from the bad guys. Sometimes, there just aren't any good guys. Let's ask ourselves: Where does the 'Terror' come from? The short answer: Radical Islam. But that doesn't do justice to the question. Let's ask ourselves another question. Who benefits; whose purposes does the terror serve? And now the answer gets a little more complicated. The short answer again: Radical Islamists. But there are others. Each time a major event occurs, security is ramped up. Surveillance is increased. Deeper and broader controls are put into place. It is all done in the name of 'peace and safety', 'peace and security'. 1Thessalonians 5:2-3 says it like this: “For you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night. For when they say, ‘Peace and safety!’ then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape.”

So who gains? Those that would seek to impose on mankind a New World Order, a One World Government; the Illuminati types, the Bilderbergs, the international banking establishment – the Powers That Be. In 1980, Peter Lemmesurier wrote The Armageddon Script, a book that purports to reveal the very-human plan to produce the Antichrist or New Age Christ. According to Lemmesurier, one of the key elements that was to be used to affect the desired world change was the use of catastrophic terror against the US and the West. Listen to how he put it. “If the Messiah is to appear, then he must be produced.”<sup>20</sup> That then is the set up for what follows.

On January 27, 2011, American Raymond Davis shot and killed two Pakistani men as they drove past him on motorbikes, in Lahore, Pakistan. Surrounded and taken into custody, Davis told police that they were attempting to rob him. The US State Department claimed him as an employee of the American Consulate – and claimed that therefore he had diplomatic immunity and must be released. But the story began to unravel almost immediately. Davis claimed to work for a security company called Hyperion LLC – but that turned out to be just a shadow front for the CIA. The two men he shot, it seems were Pakistani security agents on a mission to apprehend him. An angry mob gathered outside his cell. One of the widows killed herself with poison, demanding “blood for blood”.<sup>21</sup>

So just who is Raymond Davis and what was he doing there? Now the CIA claims that he was a contractor “providing security for CIA officers.” But Pakistani officials tell a different story. The International Herald Tribune claimed: “CIA agent Davis had ties with local militants,” and had “close ties” with the Pakistani Taliban. Investigators used his cell phone records to establish links to “27 Taliban militants and a sectarian group known as Lashkar-e-Jhangvi.” The group has been involved in a series of “horrendous crimes” including church bombings – and likely the assassination of Benazir Bhutto in 2007. The Tribune further reported that “Davis’s job was to trail links of the Taliban and al Qaeda in different parts of Pakistan. But, instead, investigators found that he had developed close links with TTP,” another terrorist organization. One police official called the killings “a blessing in disguise for our security agencies who suspected that Davis was masterminding terrorist activities in Lahore and other parts of Punjab.”<sup>22 23 24</sup>

It gets even crazier. As reported by the South Asian News Agency, ANI, “Davis was giving nuclear and biowarfare materials to Al-Qaeda.” The ANI article went on to state “According to the report, the combat skills exhibited by Davis, along with documentation taken from him after his arrest, prove that he is a member of US' TF373 black operations unit currently operating in the Afghan War Theatre and Pakistan's tribal areas.”<sup>25</sup>

So what does it all mean? Well we can't be sure. But we do know that certain units of the CIA have a long dark history. Beginning in the 1950's, the Agency established the MK ULTRA program. It was all about mind control and utilized LSD and other hallucinogenic drugs as well as occult techniques. CIA assassination programs were investigated by Congress as far back as 1975.<sup>26 27</sup> They have admitted to an extensive relationship with the NAZI espionage establishment after the fall of Germany in World War II.<sup>28 29</sup> We need only recall the occult nature of Hitler's regime to understand the affect that would have on the agency – and in the process, American policy and practices. So, no we do not have proof positive that Davis was acting for elements of the US Government – or even elements within the CIA – or that he was really trying to arm the terrorists with WMDs – just because the Russians say so. But it certainly does not bend the rules of credulity. The fact is, the Bible tells us that these last days will be a time of deception like no other, when False Christs could “deceive, if possible, even the elect.” (Matthew 24:24)

Readers of this newsletter have seen in books like The Armageddon Script and elsewhere, that the revealed plan of the Illuminati is to create the conditions necessary to drive the world in the waiting arms of a messiah figure – sitting ready to offer it “peace and security” from the chaos on the ground. Revelation 6:2 tells us of the arrival of this false man of false peace. “And I looked, and behold, a white horse. He who sat on it had a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out conquering and to conquer.” The Prophet Daniel tells us of his true nature and of the outcome of his deceitful offers of security and peace. “And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many.” (Daniel 8:23-25) (KJV)

YADAS

NOWHERE SAFE – From Natural News: “US Depart of Homeland Security has been working on plans to roll out a new wave of mobile surveillance technologies at train stations, stadiums and streets. These new technologies will track your eye movements, capture and record your facial dimensions for face-recognition processing, bathe you in X-rays to look under your clothes, and even image your naked body using whole-body infrared images.” Meanwhile, Forbes reports that the government bought 500 vans to be used for covert surveillance to “scan people on the streets”. Again, it's “peace and security,” baby!<sup>30 31</sup>

WE DON'T NEED NO STINKING BORDERS – Recall that a North American Union is slated to be part of the Club of Rome's global reorganization plan. (See first article above.) So it's interesting that President Obama and Canadian PM Harper have both exercised their executive authority and signed a document – the Beyond The Border Declaration - which, - in the words of Jerome Corsi – “put in place a new national security vision defined not by U.S. national borders, but by a continental view of a ‘North American perimeter.’” [How nice! A North American border for the coming NAU. How convenient.] The declaration created the Beyond the Border Working Group that would bypass Congress and Parliament and report just to the executives. Their reporting will include economic issues, cross-border law enforcement, and “critical infrastructure”. Corsi explains earlier arrangements put in place under President Bush. “Under the Bush administration's Security and Prosperity Partnership for North America, or SPP, the U.S., Mexico and Canada organized some 20 different “shadow government” bureaucratic working groups composed of agency heads and undersecretaries in the three nations. The groups spanne a wide range of policy areas, from e-commerce, to aviation policy, to borders and immigration, trilateral travel, transportation, energy, environment, food and agriculture, health, and financial services.”<sup>32</sup>
