THE DEATH OF THE WICKED

“Say to them: ‘As I live,’ says the Lord GOD, ‘I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways!’” (Ezekiel 33:11)

We’ve seen the celebrations; the singing – “God Bless America” and “God Bless The USA”. There were chants of “USA, USA”, and tears in many places for what cannot be brought back – lost lives and loved ones...and an America that passed in the aftermath of the 9/11 terror; an America more willing in some quarters to trade personal freedoms for peace...and security. I am grateful; especially to a military that never faltered – the men and women who offered it all up in the cause. So many of them have made the supreme sacrifice in the wars they have been called to fight. Many others have come back without limbs or emotionally broken. It was Osama’s 9/11 which arguably started that process; though it was actually well in place before, what with the embassy bombings and the attack on the USS Cole. Now it has ended – for him. (Or some would argue that it had been over years before. They tell us that he died from kidney disease. Many are the reports of his demise. Former Deputy Secretary of State Dr Steve Piecznik has long held that he passed away back in 2002.<sup>1</sup> But I digress.) Most of all I am eternally grateful to God for the meting out - of what seems justice – as best as we mortals can understand it. Still I had a hard time joining the raucousness of a chest-thumping celebration. We can only believe that – [it is likely] – that Bin Laden met a less than satisfactory end – eternally separated from the God that made him. Instead of the promised 72 virgins, he found the God he denied – and lived in rebellion against. He met his eternal judge. It is true that God has “no pleasure in the death of the wicked.” 2Peter 3:9 reveals the Lord’s heart in the matter. He is “not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.” Still, many do perish; for rejecting the very Son of God. For those that reject Him - (though mercy be offered to the end): The judgment is swift...and final!

This task well completed, it but opens new chapters and new questions. What of Pakistan. Bin Laden was found in Abbotabad, just 30 miles from the capital of Islamabad. Abbotabad is a city full of active and retired army officers, and Osama’s compound was a mere thousand yards from Pakistan’s version of West Point. The Middle East Media Research Institute issued a report describing the fortified dwelling as a “safe house” protected by Pakistan’s Inter-Services Intelligence Agency or ISI. MEMRI believes that the ISI is a big player, “virtually dictating Pakistan’s foreign relations with Afghanistan, India, and the United States.” World Net Daily reports that as recently as April of this year, Joint Chief’s Chairman Admiral Mike Mullen revealed that the ISI “supports the radical Haqqani Network, the second largest group of militants among the Taliban in Afghanistan.” Some of the Indian press, including the Times of India, is reporting that bin Laden’s presence was known by the Pakistani military brass. After all, he lived there for six years. The real question is: How could they not be aware? The United States currently sends the government of Pakistan about $3 billion annually; a reward for their partnership in the War on Terror.<sup>2 3 4</sup>

Then there is the question of what comes next. In the days after bin Laden’s dispatch, angry mourners took to the streets, demonstrating against the US action, burning American flags and threatening that his killing would unleash more terrorists willing to carry out the call of Jihad against the West and the United States especially.<sup>5</sup> Anjem Choudary, “founder and former chief of two Islamic groups disbanded by the British” warned of a coming jihad “in the heart of America”. He called bin Laden a “lion of Islam” and warned that there were many “waiting to take his place” and warned that Iraq and Afghanistan would turn into a “complete nightmare” for American troops there.<sup>6</sup> The US and the world at large, is taking such threats quite seriously. ABC reports that “an elite unit of Marines who handle chemical and biological weapons attacks” has been ordered home from Japan immediately.<sup>7</sup> But while the killing may have angered those already inclined to terror in the name of violent jihad: It also provided an unexpected bonus. The Navy SEALs that conducted the operation walked away with bin Laden’s personal stash of al-Qaeda computers and software a veritable “mother lode of intelligence”. That alone could provide the locations of many more al-Qaeda cells located throughout the globe.<sup>8</sup> Finally: Congratulations and thanks to all those that participated – in government, intelligence and the military. However in the end: This was an act of divine justice.

REMAKING THE GLOBAL ECONOMY – PART II

The futurists and trends analysts paint a dire picture of what America is fast becoming. Gerald Celente sees the US turning into a full fledged Third World Economy by the end of 2012. Our uber-accurate friends at the European think tank LEAP 20/20 tell us the “next stage of the crisis will really be the ‘Very Serious Breakdown of the world economic, financial and monetary system’ and that this historic failure will occur in autumn 2011.” (And they’ve been right on the money since the unfolding of this crisis.) If our world is indeed being transformed then it begs the questions: What form will it take? Who is taking us there? And what is their end game? Those are some of the questions we’ll be exploring as we continue this series.

HARBINGERS OF DOOM

“Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; therefore hear a word from My mouth, and give them warning from Me: When I say to the wicked, ‘You shall surely die,’ and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life, that same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand. Yet, if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.” (Ezek 3:17-19) “He heard the sound of the trumpet, but did not take warning; his blood shall be upon himself. But he who takes warning will save his life.” (Ezek 33:5)

Last time out we saw that Standard & Poor was threatening to lower US bond ratings. That would cost the American taxpayer billions of dollars. Bob Chapman predicted that the real inflation rate would top out at 14% by the end of the year.<sup>9</sup> This time it was the IMF’s turn. The International Monetary Fund conducted an analysis and came up with this dire prediction as reported by Brett Arends in Market Watch. “China’s economy will surpass that of America in real terms in 2016 — just five years from now. Put that in your calendar.” To let that really sink in, Arends put it another way. “According to the IMF forecast, whomever is elected U.S. president next year — Obama? Mitt Romney? Donald Trump? — will be the last to preside over the world’s largest economy.”<sup>10</sup> Phoenix Capital defined some of the reasons behind the circumstances we’re in.

- “US is now officially paying out more in benefits than it takes in via tax receipts.”
- “More than half of all Americans (59%) receive a Government payout in one form or another.”
- “Government payouts account for 79% of household growth since 2007.”

In other words we’ve created an artificial economy – and it’s the only thing that’s keeping the majority of our citizens afloat. Their conclusion: America is “supporting our debt load by creating more money out of thin air. It is absolute insanity and a clear signal that we’re rapidly approaching GAME OVER for the US’s monetary system.”<sup>11</sup>

Brandon Smith, another analyst with a very accurate predictive history believes that the “final stage of the economic collapse...has arrived.” He notes the panic in Washington as another sign that that the collapse is just about upon us. The Obama administration is looking for scapegoats, ascribing the high-cost of oil to ‘speculators’. However, he explains, that the situation is not really like 2008 at all. And then there is the Federal Reserve printing money like it’s going out of style. [And perhaps that’s just the plan!] To Smith, it’s the high and rising cost of energy that will trigger the end game. He explains.

“High energy costs hit every conceivable sector of the economy, from freight, to food, to vacations, to housing. People drive less when it costs them twice as much to do so, which means less shopping, fewer trips to Disney World, and second thoughts about moving to a new home in a new state. The cost of producing goods hits wholesale prices, which eventually hit retail prices when corporate chains are no longer able to absorb the increases. Your electric and heating bills take a bite right out of your tender behind. All of these factors will snap the thin thread our system is clinging to. America, as we know it, WILL NOT survive $5-$10 gas. Period.”<sup>12</sup>

And as anyone can see that has bought a gallon of gas or a bag of groceries lately: It’s taking more and more to get that done. Now that doesn’t bother the international banking establishment whatsoever. Just as in the 2008 financial crisis, the banks are willing to take paper losses in return for the acquisition of very real assets. But as long as the Federal government is willing to write bailout legislation, even those artificial losses won’t be necessary. Thus the Fed just keeps creating money out of nothing, eroding the value of the savings of the middle classes and enabling the banking classes to continue to acquire more wealth. Bob Chapman: “This monetization is the lynch pin that is holding up the US and world financial system.” But it’s a trap that the rest of the world will not long stand for. Two big moves are on the horizon that will affect America’s ability to do ‘business as usual’. Japanese pension funds are preparing to divest themselves of American dollars in significant amounts. And here’s the headline from Zero Hedge: “China Proposes To Cut Two Thirds Of Its $3 Trillion In USD Holdings”. Ironically, that $2 trillion figure is about the same as the number of dollars that have been printed. The Chinese will move that money toward the acquisition of real assets such as natural resources and technology.<sup>13</sup> Real assets! That's just what the international banking cartel is after too. Chapman wrote about how that is working out in the Greek budgetary crisis. "Greece's Illuminist president is in the process of laying plans to collateralize new debt repayment commitments with Greek assets such as islands, ports, the rail system, the electric and gas companies and any asset not nailed down....Banks like JPM and GS that create money out of thin air do not care about the money, they want the assets."<sup>14</sup> That too, explains the manipulation of the precious metal markets by the likes of JP Morgan. Brandon Smith: They: "have consistently manipulated the market value of gold and silver down (and been caught in the act). First, global bankers strive to remove all competition from any economic system, and this includes forms of currency. Gold and silver have long been competing forms of currency to fiat paper. Therefore, banker attacks on metals are a given."<sup>15</sup>

All of what we're seeing then is the product of manipulation on the part of the PTB. Bob Chapman concludes, "What we are seeing was deliberately created." The entire crisis has the appearance of some grand scheme to affect a controlled collapse of the world economy and its reordering along international lines. The banking cartel is moving us toward a one world currency and has been doing so openly and in earnest since 2009. The dollar – and the US economy that supports it – is then just something that stands in their way.<sup>16</sup> "Joseph Stiglitz of Columbia University has come out against the dollar, calling for an end to its world reserve status as well as the implementation of a new "global system."<sup>17</sup> And little publicized was a recent George Soros sponsored conference that hopes to lay the groundwork for the reworking of the entire global financial arrangement established at Bretton Woods after World War II. It is an attempt to force march the world into full-fledged globalism with proposed global taxes and necessarily an international taxing authority. To one writer at Infowars, Breton Woods II provides the outline for the "final enslavement of mankind."<sup>18</sup> And he's not the only one. While the folks at LEAP 20/20 might not use the phrase "final enslavement of mankind" – they have laid out the same scenario. So has Gerald Celente and others. Here's Brandon Smith again. "If global banks have their way, we are facing, at minimum: Full Housing Collapse, Full Credit Collapse, Grid Failures, State And Municipal Defaults, National Default, Energy Crisis, Food Crisis, Civil Unrest, Increased Crime, Reduction Of Civil Liberties." That will all, in the end, lead to the imposition of martial law; a de facto dictatorship.<sup>19</sup>

And Behind The Curtain....

So what could possibly be driving the move toward such a scenario? It is hard for the 'Normals' to fathom. But divorced from the vast majority of mankind is a cabal of vast proportions; imperceptibly held together by a spiritually induced drive for power. The Bible refers to it as the spirit of antichrist. It can be defined as man making himself god. It was the first temptation that Satan used in the Garden. God had told Adam and Eve not to eat "of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil...for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die." (Genesis 2:17) But here was Satan's lie. "You will not surely die. For God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." (Genesis 3:4-5) That has been man's dream ever since. It manifested itself again at the building of the Tower of Babel. It is man raising his own will above that of the Almighty. And in some circles it has become a formalized religion. It operates in a world that declares 'It's all good', as such denying evil. It is enthroned in the Jewish Kabbalah and its mostly Gentile counterpart: Freemasonry. It is expressed in the Illuminati motto "Order Out of Chaos". As Dr Henry Makow Explains: That's why "The Communist Manifesto advocates the destruction of nation, religion and family and the transfer of all private wealth to the Illuminati bankers in the guise of the state."<sup>20</sup> That is exactly what we see happening today. Our governments are blatantly and openly transferring billions of dollars to the international banking cartel that pulls the strings and controls those governments in the first place. The traditional roles of family and nation are being destroyed in favor of 'the village' and international authority. In the process, the true God of this universe is being denied. "By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God. And this is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and is now already in the world." (1John 4:2-3) What you have at the top is an Elite of the Elite that rejects both the God of the Bible – and all that He stands for. When expressed in its Kabalistic form this philosophy says "Without evil there could be no good, without destruction, creation could not take place."<sup>21</sup> In Hasidic Kabbalism the view of the nature of God and good and evil are very similar to that found in Freemasonry, Eastern Religions and the New Age. "In Chabad Hasidism, it is stated that evil exists as part of the Divine revelation itself. Indeed, to think that evil really is separate from God is, itself, the essence of evil, which is precisely the illusion of separation."<sup>22</sup> This is the chief spiritual justification for the enthronement of human reason and the promotion of fomenting chaos to bring on the messianic age. This longing for chaos to produce a messiah-figure is an essential part of belief systems around the globe. Islam's Mahdi, the Lord Maitreya and the New Age Christ are all to come out of this apocalyptic soup. And thus when Iran's Ahmadinejad or the Bilderbergs reveal schemes that will foment this chaos....well, it's all just a part of the plan.

What does this all have to do with economic crisis and transformation? Well, it may just be what's behind today's headlines and trends. Consider these reports emanating from a series of recent meetings of the world's elites. Veteran Bilderberg investigator Jim Tucker writes that both the Trilateralists and the Bilderbergs were in favor of the Libyan War “extended through 2012 to generate turmoil throughout the Middle.” Well, why in the world would they be in favor of that, pray tell? According to Tucker again, it’s because that would create the conditions that would put pressure on the US to attack Iran.<sup>23</sup> The charge on this front was led by former Secretary of State of Presidents’ Nixon & Ford, Henry Kissinger; who made the same speech on three occasions. In fact, Kissinger actually is calling for a ground invasion by American forces. Paul Joseph Watson of Prison Planet characterizes this as “symptomatic of the way globalists use America’s military muscle to pursue madcap geopolitical objectives while the country itself withers and dies.”<sup>24</sup>

But there’s something more than just the military / strategic military considerations at stake here. There’s another report coming out of the same meetings. Here’s the headline from Infowars. “Report: Bilderberg Wants Gas Prices at $7 a Gallon.” Tucker explains: “By the end of the year 2012, they (the Bilderbergers and the elite) want us paying $7 a gallon for gasoline... what they want to do is bring the American standard of living down to the standard of the so-called third world... they want the whole world to have the same standard of living.” THAT SOUNDS CRAZY! Until you consider their track record. Here’s a further excerpt from the Infowars article:

“In 2007, Jose Barroso, president of the European Commission and a Bilderberg member, called for a ‘post-industrial revolution’ under the guise of eliminating so-called greenhouse gases. The failed 2009 Copenhagen climate summit was an effort to impose a lower standard of living on the United States and much of the Western world. In order to usher in the a new feudal society and implement authoritarian control over humanity, the global elite must slash the standard of living across the board. They plan to this through the United Nations and Agenda 21 and demands for ‘sustainable development.’”<sup>25</sup>

You see, the Bilderbergs, along with their cronies, henchmen and toadies are all just following a script designed to bring the Global Elite to power. We look to the Market Oracle which sees $7 gas as just a consequence of the natural economic forces put into play by the Banking Cartel. As they point out: “The Fed has tripled the money supply and reduced interest rates to zero.” Once the banks start lending and that money gets to moving around the economy “inflation, high oil prices and interest rates will conspire to crash the market again.” With three-times the money in circulation a simplified model would seem to suggest a tripling of gas prices. That would put gas at about $10.50 per gallon. That’s when the author concludes: “[A]ll of a sudden, $7 gas seems like a deal.”<sup>26</sup> Then consider Maurice Strong, a Canadian billionaire and member of that group. Here’s what he openly said to an interviewer back in 1990. “What if a small group of these world leaders were to conclude that the principal risk to the Earth comes from the actions of rich countries in order to save the planet, this group decided, ‘Isn’t the only hope for the planet that the industrialized civilizations collapse? Isn’t it our responsibility to bring that about?’”<sup>27</sup> Is that their agenda? If we would look at their actions it would seem so. For instance take the manipulation of the price of oil. We’ve followed this before. Infowars documents again how Tucker & fellow Bilderberg investigator Daniel Estulin reported – in advance – on just what the Global Elite had in mind – back in 2005. They both cited inside sources, saying that it would double within the year. That’s exactly what it did. Then there’s Pastor Lindsey Williams with his own inside connections to the oil cartel. He’s been right on the money from the tips that they’ve given him. Now Infowars reports that Lindsey has information indicating that the Elite want to “take the price back up through the stratosphere, a process we are now witnessing firsthand at the gas pump.”<sup>28</sup>

If this still sounds crazy – [and on some level, I must admit it does] – then consider this. With all our oil energy needs the administration is blocking expanding drilling in the Gulf of Mexico and the EPA just ruled against Shell Oil drilling in the Arctic Ocean off the north coast of Alaska.<sup>29</sup> There may be some other explanation. But I am not easily finding it. After all, candidate Obama ran on there agenda. He told us: “under my plan of a cap and trade system, electricity rates would necessarily skyrocket.” He then went on to talk about costs going up for coal power plants, natural gas and “whatever the industry.”<sup>30</sup> We can’t say he hasn’t tried to keep his promise.

One can only make sense of this all if we see it in the context of a 6,000 year revolt of mankind against the Divine Order established by God Himself. Dr Henry Makow summed it up nicely. “Modern Western civilization has no moral legitimacy (and no future) because it is based on a rebellion against God, who represents the path of our spiritual development. Humanity had been hijacked by psychopaths intent on destroying the ‘old order’....These psychopaths control our government’s credit and the mass media. Thus, they are able to purchase our leaders and dupe society into embracing its own downfall.”<sup>31</sup> To that I can only add: Amen!
