ALL HAIL THE GREEN & RED ! – PART II

As we saw last time, the idea of an environmental crisis was the enemy selected to unite the world. This was done by the globalist Club of Rome. It was promoted in the name of Smart Growth and Sustainable Development. This manufactured crisis is the driving force being Agenda 21 – a UN inspired program to assert control over every aspect of human life. And behind all of that, is a religious agenda that unites and inspires its' political and economic aspects.

GAIA: THE RELIGION OF EARTH

Satan is building a kingdom. He is preparing a people to populate that kingdom. And he is raising up a man – his man – who will serve as his representative on earth: The Antichrist. Scripture tells us that his power will be total. It will encompass the entire globe. “And authority was given him over every tribe, tongue, and nation.” (Revelation 13:7) AC will use “another beast coming out of the earth,” in his drive to absolute authority. This is to be the supreme religious leader of what will become a worldwide religion; the False Prophet. He will head up the Global Religious System that will affirm that New World Order and lead the lost in the worship of the first beast: the Antichrist. In his prophecy, the Apostle John saw that this false religious leader “had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon. And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast” (Revelation 13:11-12) His, will be the form of a “lamb” - religious authority, with the doctrine and words of the devil - the “dragon”. He will “deceive those that dwell on the earth” (Revelation 13:14) Interestingly it will be this religious leader that will be instrumental in setting up an economic system that exercises total control of every aspect of human activity. Revelation 13:16-17 tells us “He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads, and that no one may buy or sell except one who has the mark or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.” Most students of prophecy are coming to the conclusion that this “mark” will be some form of bar code implanted on the subservient minions of the Antichrist.

In the end, through the efforts of this second beast, the False Prophet: “All who dwell on the earth will worship” the Antichrist. (Revelation 13:8) (The only exception will be those who are saved during the Great Tribulation; those whose names are written in the Lambs Book of Life.) As for the rest, they will worship not only the Antichrist but also the power behind this “man of sin”; Satan himself. Revelation 13:4 tells us: “So they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast.” [It does us well to note here that Freemasonry at the highest levels recognizes this ultimate end of worshiping Lucifer – just as it denies that worship to Yahweh, the God of the Bible. Theosophy too, according to one of its supreme acolytes, Alice Bailey, confirms this intention of instituting the restoration of occult paganism when the New Age Christ (Antichrist) comes to power.]

This False Prophet; through his efforts and his abilities to do miracles; will in the end, enable the Great Apostasy - that sudden falling away from the true faith. In that he will be operating in the power of Satan. “The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders.” (2Thessalonians 2:9) Revelation 13:13-14 describes it like this. “He performs great signs, so that he even makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men. And he deceives those who dwell on the earth by those signs which he was granted to do in the sight of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword and lived.” Thus Paul warned believers of one aspect of the coming End Game: “Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.” (2Thessalonians 2:3-4)

This will occur at the mid-point of the Tribulation. It referred to elsewhere as the Abomination of Desolation - and it will trigger the severe judgment of God.

So to sum this part up: What we have seen then is the fact that the Antichrist will exercise total economic, political and religious control. This is today being prepared on many fronts. There are forces in place that are operating to destroy the witness of the saints and the purity of the doctrine of the Church. These same forces in other forms are undermining national sovereignty in our country and around the world. They are shaking the economic stability of the entire globe; in the process creating the building blocks of a ten region, supra-national confederacy as an admitted prelude to world government. Our buddies at the Club of Rome, for instance called for an alliance of Super-Nations – the leaders of which have no authority as of now. Here’s the prophecy found in Revelation 17:12-13: “The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority for one hour as kings with the beast. These are of one mind, and they will give their power and authority to the beast.” And we see the religious side of all this taking shape in the form of New Age and Eastern religions - and the Emergent Church movement - and Islam - and Chrislam - and Scripture-denying liberal false Christianity. Together, they are preparing the way for the religion of Antichrist. Thus enters the Gaia phenomenon.

The Religion Of Radical Environmentalism

It was back in 2007 that former Vice President Al Gore won his Nobel Peace Prize for his work publicizing global warming. A statement he gave in reaction to that award gives us a clue to the real agenda behind the movement. He said, *“We face a true planetary emergency. The climate crisis is not a political issue, it is a moral and spiritual challenge to all of humanity. It is also our greatest opportunity to lift Global Consciousness to a higher level.”*¹ So the goal then is to “lift Global Consciousness”. Now just what does that mean?

Perhaps we need look at something called the World Commission on Global Consciousness and Spirituality to learn the truth. This organization has been described by one writer as the Club of Rome “in another guise”.² Visit their website, globalspirit.org, and you will find a statement by a Dr Ashok Gangadean that promotes “awakening” global consciousness “on a planetary scale”. “We humans are in the midst of a profound advance as a species to a higher form of global consciousness that has been emerging across cultures, religions and worldviews.” This is an attempt to harness the spiritual force that is to sit behind a coming – and in their case, eagerly anticipated – One World Government.³ Serving as sort of the spiritual side of the globalist Club of Rome, the World Commission is of course fully in line with the starting point: That would be the notion that the world must be united by the common threat of looming climate change...of course caused by man. But to these guys – this is only the starting point. You see, to these folks, the earth is a sentient being. It has feelings. And more than that: The Earth is the ultimate goddess: Gaia! It is interesting to note the Google online dictionary definition of the term Gaia. It is defined as: “The Earth personified as a goddess, daughter of Chaos. She was the mother and wife of Uranus (Heaven); their offspring included the Titans and the Cyclopes.” [Daughter of Chaos? Mmmm! New Age, Islamic, Mayan and other religious traditions all warn of a coming period of Chaos that will precede the entrance into a new age. Mmmm again!] As quoted in the Green Agenda, Sir James Lovelock states in his book Gaia: A new look at Life: *“all of the lifeforms on this planet are a part of Gaia - part of one spirit goddess that sustains life on earth. Since this transformation into a living system the interventions of Gaia have brought about the evolving diversity of living creatures on planet Earth”*⁴ [Perhaps this is a good time to recall the warning given in Romans 1, when it describes the abandonment by God that follows a people who have “exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator.” (Romans 1:25)] This stuff their practicing is outright paganism; a return to the Tower of Babel. [And if you ask me, these guys are more than a little whacked!] Lovelock advocates a human race that evolves into a relationship with this Earth Goddess that will result in “the commonwealth of all creatures”.⁵ In yet another work on his favorite subject, Lovelock grafts the goddess notion on to Roman Catholicism, offering that Mary may serve as another form for what is essentially a replay of the Earth Goddess worship found to be prevalent in many ancient pagan cultures.⁶ (As such, he returns the Catholic concept of Mary as demigod or Co-Redemptrix, to its original source.) The Green Agenda sums it all up nicely. “Gaians claim that ‘we are part of Nature and Nature is part of us, therefore God is part of us, and God is everywhere, and everything is God'....The current Gaia Cult is a cunning mixture of science, paganism, eastern mysticism, wicca and feminism.”⁷

This is all heading toward building the spiritual architecture that will likely undergird the unified world religion of Antichrist. It may just go through some organization like: The Gaia Mind Project. Here’s some of what they have to say. “The GaiaMind Project is dedicated to exploring the idea that we, humanity, are the Earth becoming aware of itself. From this perspective, the next step in the evolution of consciousness would seem to be our collective recognition that through our technological and spiritual interconnectedness we represent the Earth growing an organ of self-reflexive consciousness. While we believe that the Earth is alive, and we are part of it, we also affirm the Great Spirit of Oneness found at the heart of all the world’s great spiritual traditions.... Imagine people all over the world sharing a moment of meditation and prayer, a moment of unified global consciousness when people from the world’s many diverse spiritual traditions simultaneously focus attention on our interconnected relationship with Gaia - the living Earth.”⁸

Now what this is aimed at is a global revolution in the spiritual / religious plane. In 2008 the Club of Budapest, an offshoot of the more famous Club of Rome, declared a State of Global Emergency. Their analysis gave the world only until about 2013 to act to avoid total catastrophe. According to their Draft Declaration: The “window of opportunity” for pulling out of the present global crisis and breaking through to a more peaceful and sustainable world is likely to be no more than four to five years from the end of 2008. This is close in time to the Mayan 2012 prophecy for the end of the current world. The period around the end of 2012 is likely to be a turbulent one for this and other reasons. Predictions coming from the physical sciences foresee disturbances in the geomagnetic, electromagnetic and related fields that embed the planet causing significant damage to telecommunications and impacting many aspects of human activity and health. For the esoteric traditions the end of 2012 will be the end of the known world, although the more optimistic interpretations speak of a new world taking the place of the old.”⁹ In The Green Agenda, the author explains that: “The whole Gaia, Global Warming, Global Governance, Global Consciousness agenda is just a neo-pagan death cult disguised as science and New Age philosophy”¹⁰ That is entirely accurate.

This ‘Death Cult’ operates, sickly, in the name of ‘Saving the Planet’. Just read what some of the leading globalists – supporters of these insane religious notions – have prescribed for our planetary salvation.

- From the 1974 Club of Rome report: Mankind at the Turning Point: “The Earth has cancer and the cancer is Man.”
- Paul Ehrlich in The Population Bomb, Club of Rome member: “A cancer is an uncontrolled multiplication of cells; the population explosion is an uncontrolled multiplication of people.... We must shift our efforts from the treatment of the symptoms to the cutting out of the cancer. The operation will demand many apparently brutal and heartless decisions.”
- Mikhail Gorbachev, Former President of the Soviet Union, Club of Rome member: “Cut the population by 90% and there aren’t enough people left to do a great deal of ecological damage.”
- Jacques Cousteau, that famous, loveable French explorer that older folks will remember from TV specials: “In order to stabilize world population, we must eliminate 350,000 people per day. It is a horrible thing to say, but it is just as bad not to say it.”¹¹ [Anyone ever suggest that you might want to show some leadership go in the fist load?]
- Secretary of State Henry Kissinger even gave it his imprimatur at the highest levels of the American government in a National Security Memo written in 1974. He wrote: “Depopulation should be the highest priority of U.S. foreign policy towards the Third World.” [Your tax dollars at work, baby!]¹²

Like it or not – the aim of this international cabal is to take total control of the entire world. They are willing to create a ‘state of controlled chaos’ to do so. According to Mackey’s Encyclopedia of Freemasonry, that is the motto used by Masonry’s 33rd Degree. Ordo Ab Chao is translated Order Out Of Chaos.¹³ Here’s how Maurice Strong; Canadian billionaire, radical environmental activist and open proponent of the New World Order put it. “Isn’t the only hope for the planet that the industrialized civilizations collapse? Isn’t it our responsibility to bring that about?” The PTB have maneuvered events to the point where they can almost smell the finish line. Global Government is just about in sight. Even back in 1994 they could feel themselves nearing the end. Speaking at a business conference, Bilderberg giant David Rockefeller let slip a very candid remark. “We are on the verge of a global transformation. All we need is the right major crisis and the nations will accept the New World Order.”¹⁴ They are orchestrating that very crisis today!

STUCK ON STUPID

The more Man depends on himself; the farther he gets from God. As we rely on our own understanding, rather than that of the Almighty our decisions get increasingly silly. That's because we are rejecting real Truth in favor of our own self centered and limited opinions. That's sort of like what we see America doing today. (And yeah, we're not the only nation out there doing that.) Take for instance the financial sphere. Here we are, broke as can be, trillions of dollars in debt and trillions more in unfunded liabilities – and our answer as to how to fix it – is to throw more (newly printed) money at it – getting ourselves even more in debt in the process. Brilliant! The verse that comes to mind is Romans 1:22. “Professing to be wise, they became fools.” But there is something else that really got my attention this last week. And that has to do with our national security. We just aren't very smart anymore.

Now China is turning into our biggest rival. Their economy is in the process of passing ours. They are campaigning to end the dollar's role as the world's reserve currency. Their military is expanding, upgrading their technology and in general gearing up to challenge America in the Asia / Pacific theater as well as on the world stage. They want to take over Taiwan, for instance – and Taiwan is our ally. There have even been rumblings from the Chinese officer corps who have expressed at the highest levels, the conviction that a war for world dominance between China and the US is inevitable. So what follows then, takes on a whole new level of stupid.

The Department of Defense has purchased 59,000 microchips from our buddies, the Chinese. These were to be employed in critical weapons systems. But as World Net Daily reports, these were “designed with a ‘back door’ which would have allowed the chip, and the device it controlled, to be shut down remotely at any time.” America's defenses were in jeopardy were at risk. Had the special design encoded in the microchips not been detected, naval warships, aircraft and other advanced weapons systems could have been “remotely” turned off by the Chinese – at will. The Pentagon purchased the technology from China despite the fact that the Chinese had been caught doing the same thing before. These “back doors” were previously found in chips purchased by American businesses, as well as tied “to networks that were defined as part of the nation's ‘critical infrastructure.’” Great Britain has faced similar issues.¹⁵

YADAS

GOMER PYLE & THE IAEA – Let's play Jeopardy! The Answer: Something that is only a surprise to Gomer Pyle and the UN's International Atomic Energy Agency. The Question: What is: Iran really is building nuclear weapons! According to Iran Press News and Israel's Arutz Sheva: The Ayatollah Khameni, Iran's Supreme Leader, gave the go ahead to the Revolutionary Guards to speed the process and have an atomic bomb ready for testing in 2012. *Who would have guessed?*¹⁶

PALESTINE – The movement to have the UN's General Assembly declare Palestine an independent state is gaining momentum. The body meets in September and the Palestinian government believes it will have the support needed to ask for a formal declaration of statehood, championed by European support.¹⁷ But just who are the people that the Israelis are being pressured to negotiate with? Polling has been very revealing of the attitudes of those who call themselves Palestinians. (The name ‘Palestinian’ didn't even gain traction until after Israeli victory in the '67 Six Day War.¹⁸) Here's some of what the recent surveys tell us. 61% of Palestinians reject President Obama's call for a two-state solution. What they want – to the tune of 66% - is - (according to the Jerusalem Post) – “to start with a two-state solution but then move to it all being one Palestinian state.” Over 9 in 10 want Jerusalem to be the capital of Palestine alone – and over half want hate of the Jews to be a value taught to school kids. Finally, *“Seventy-three percent agreed with a quote from the [Hamas] charter (and a hadith, or tradition ascribed to the prophet Muhammad) about the need to kill Jews hiding behind stones and trees.”*¹⁹ These are the folks that the world wants Israel to negotiate with; to give half of their land to! These are the same ones that were firing rockets at Israel from the advanced bases of the Gaza Strip only hours after Israel voluntarily handed over that land.
