THE BIG FICTION

OK! Check this out! There's this imaginary land...No, no! The land is real...but there's this imaginary people...Wait, let me get this right...the people are real....but they're not who they say they are...and they've been lying about who they are for several decades now – so that they don't even know that they're lying any more....some of them at least, that they're not the people that they say they are. Make sense? And you know what's even crazier than that? Like, big chunks of the world believes them. World leaders and news guys and commentators; almost all the movers and shakers are buying into this...stuff...And they're making it really hard on the folks that really do have the rights to this land. And right now all these movers and shakers are working real hard to get the guys & gals that really do have the rights to that land....well they're trying to get them to give up a bunch of it – to this people that never really were. And listen. The imaginary people are even submitting their application for statehood even as they riot against the folks that have the rights to the land. OK, I admit it. I'm not making this up. It really is that crazy.!

NO! Wait! That's what's really going on. Here's the truth. As Former Israeli Prime Minister Golda Meir once declared: "There is no such thing as a Palestinian people".¹ That was like wow politically incorrect and absolutely historically true. The big myth that has been perpetrated tells us that Israel wrested the Land from the Palestinians occupying their homeland after wars of conquest. The fact is: Israel moved into the territories only after Arab countries initiated wars of annihilation against the Jewish presence. Those Arab countries included Egypt, Syria, Jordan, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, Iraq and Yemen. Did you notice? No Palestine! It didn't exist. Let's look at the History of the Land. Now under British control, by 1923 Palestine was divided into two districts; - 3/4 for Arabs and about 1/4 for Jews. The artificially created nation of Trans-Jordan – (today's Jordan) – was to serve as the homeland for the Palestinian Arabs. (Did you catch that?) Just prior to Israel's declaration of independence in 1948, the land was divided again, with more land taken from the Jews and awarded to the Arabs. The Jews agreed to this too - and the Arabs did not. What followed was a war of independence which the reborn nation of Israel won against massive odds. It's an interesting fact that during the period from 1949-1967, - while Gaza was held by Egypt and the West Bank by Jordan, - no attempt was made to set up a Palestinian State. No mention was ever made of the 'rights of the Palestinian People'. The PLO, (Palestinian Liberation Organization) was not founded until 1964 and did not discover their "ancient" identity as a people until Israel took those territories after the Arab-caused '67 War^{2 3 4 5 6 7}

Now the world demands that Israel surrender yet more of her territory to a people dedicated to her destruction. Yet with this history available to all who would know it: The world has been fooled. Former President Clinton campaigns for a Palestinian state. Current President Obama is wed to the idea. With Israel forced to mobilize tens of thousands of security forces to deal with the emerging violent Arab protests; with Palestinian leaders calling for the complete dismantling of the Jewish state: the world remains committed to creating this state for a fictional people. In fact groups such as the UN call on Israel to exercise "restraint". The completion of this fictional architecture is already considered a done deal. Israel's role is but to bow and scrape in recognition of this new phantasm of reality.^{8 9 10}

The insanity of the situation is being brought home on many fronts. It is being asked – no demanded – that Israel make peace and give territory to an entity that does not even recognize its right to exist. Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas calls Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu the 'most inflexible Israeli leader I've ever known.' Yet he is the one who is demanding that the Oslo peace accords be changed in favor of the Palestinian cause. And it is Abbas who has been implicated in the financing of the 1972 terror attack that killed eleven Israeli athletes at the 1972 Olympics in Munich.^{11 12 13} The Israeli people are feeling the effects of that hatred. The same day Abbas was asking the UN for recognition the Palestinians initiated a new form of terror; drive-by rocket attacks. A 25 year old father and his one year old son were murdered in the incident.

All this speaks to the matter of just what sort of state is to be created for this imaginary people. Giulio Meotti detailed just the sort of political entity we can expect. Here's some of what he offered. Palestinian leaders admit: "It will be a racist state ethnically cleansed of Jews." It will "banish freedom of conscience for artists, journalists and writers." It will stone homosexuals and prostitutes to death. It will be tied to the Muslim Brotherhood, "the caliphate of death". Sharia will be "the only rule of law." It will be a "state that will commemorate terrorists, human bombs and baby killers." Finally it will be a state dedicated to destruction of not only Israel but the entire Jewish race.¹⁴ Yet the world has swallowed the lie and is determined to see it come to fruition. In fact, the world demands not only the establishment of a Palestinian state – but insists on Jerusalem serving as its capital. But here's how God weighs in on the subject. "Thus says the LORD, who stretches out the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him: Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of drunkenness to all the surrounding peoples, when they lay siege against Judah and Jerusalem. And it shall happen in that day that I will make Jerusalem a very heavy stone for all peoples; all who would heave it away will surely be cut in pieces, though all nations of the earth are gathered against it." (Zechariah 12:1-3)

END GAME 2011 – PART X

We've set the stage. The confused spirituality that is called The New Age is the vehicle that will move the world toward the religion of the Antichrist. In Part X we'll look briefly at its history; an exercise that will reveal clues as to where it is headed.

THE NEW AGE – FROM WHENCE IT CAME

The New Age system was new ...oh...about 5,000 years ago. It was founded by Nimrod, a priest-king, who combined in his person, the religious and civil aspects of government.¹⁵ He was a hunter of men's souls, who led a rebellion against the Creator God. To Nimrod and his followers, - Man was to become God. Nimrod set out to build a tower, a monument to Man himself. We know the story. God confused the builders and scattered them throughout the earth. But behind this ancient religion, was a sense that Man had evolved from the natural processes of the Earth. We see it today in the revival of the cult of Gaia; the Earth as Goddess/ Mother. This notion was part of most early religions. It was pagan evolutionism, originating in ancient Babylon, the land of Sumer. Its tenets survived and spread around the world after the fall of the Tower of Babel. It flowered in Greece, spread by the writings of Homer, and had its expression in Rome: Earth as Goddess, "Mother Earth", "Mother Nature". It finds modern expression in the Goddess movement of radical feminism. To all of its adherents, the Earth is a "Being" capable of feeling, capable of will, and deserving of worship.¹⁶

This is nothing less than idolatry in its most basic form. It is rebellion against the evidence. Romans 1, clearly announces a judgment! Here is Paul's indictment against those who refuse to recognize the truth. "The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of men who suppress the truth by their wickedness, since what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them. For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that men are without excuse. For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened. Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images....They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served created things rather than the Creator". (Romans 1:18-22, 25) And that is the sine-qua-non of paganism. There is no paganism without the worship of Earth or element or energy; - of creature or creation.

Another universal element of that whole Pagan System, is the notion of death and rebirth, - reincarnation.¹⁷ The fact that the soul never dies, makes man somehow 'divine'. So the "Dead" are to be acknowledged, honored, consulted and even worshiped. Communication with the "Dead", is what the Ancient Mystery Religions of Babylon and Egypt were all about. The very word "occult", means just that, - secret or mysterious. These ancient religious systems were based on witchcraft, - controlling the forces of nature, or the spirit world, - or the Energy Source of the universe for your own ends. Similarly, the New Age taps into Spiritualism, - seeking guidance from the spirits of the dead. Through "Channeling", a medium makes contact with the 'Ascended Masters', who are supposedly souls that have gone through many incarnations, evolving into some sort of 'divine' status. Some claim to have been in contact with Buddha, Mohammed and even Jesus Himself.

Now the source of all this can be found in the Astrology of ancient Babylon and Egypt. It was believed that the souls of the dead went to inhabit the stars and the planets. And these souls, living in the heavenly bodies, somehow control future events. According to serious students of Astrology, we are now entering something called the Age of Aquarius. Aquarius, with his pouring water jar, is symbolic of a blending of all the religious knowledge of mankind. This is to be a time of religious unity, love and brotherhood, - an era of tolerance. It is to flower in the establishment of One-Religion and One-World-Government.

Through Astrology, the New Age is connected to Sun Worship, - and thus directly tied to the practice of Witchcraft. Sun Worship is the foundation for Witchcraft, - both ancient and modern. Wiccans, Witches and Earth Goddess Worshipers base their entire religious system on the worship of nature, - and submission to its timing.¹⁸ In all its forms, it is growing throughout the world. Paganism is the fastest growing religion in Australia. The Alice Bailey founded Theosophical Society, states plainly that this United Religion of the Last Days is to be occultic in nature. That's the goal of the New Age.

Hinduism and Buddhism are also drawing increasing interest among religious "seekers" in the West. These Eastern Philosophies and the New Age Movement share many of the beliefs and values found in Witchcraft and other forms of pagan expression. They all share a belief in reincarnation. We have seen how reincarnation provides the basis for contacting the spirit world of the Ascended Masters. And by tapping in to that secret knowledge that only the dead possess, - we can hasten our own spiritual journey to become part of the One Reality, the Universal All. Because you see, to the New Ager, God is not a person but a Life Force, - not a personality, but rather Energy. Our 'salvation' is achieved by realizing our own divinity. This is the agreed upon teaching of Hinduism, Buddhism, Witchcraft, the New Age, the Freemasons, the Spiritualists and more.

To Helena Blavatsky, founder of the modern Movement, there is but One Religion. Wisdom can be gleaned from every religion. All religions were a path to God, - none was "false". Working in the late 19th century, Blavatsky was admittedly possessed by an Ascended Master (demon). Her forays into Spiritualism, (contacting the dead), and Astral Projection, (soul traveling), foreshadowed some of the radical movement of the 60's. She encouraged the use of drugs as an aid in achieving "altered consciousness", - a state from which it was easier to contact the Spirit World.¹⁹ The use of drugs is a common staple in the practice of witchcraft, - as it was for Hitler's occultic initiation. Blavatsky discovered hashish while in Cairo and used the drug to help her communicate with the Great Masters or Star Gods. By the 60's, the whole justification of the drug movement was based on the writings of Spiritualists who taught that the use of mind altering substances, such as hashish, peyote and LSD, should be used to alter consciousness and communicate with "our inner selves".

But Blavatsky was not the first to use drugs in this way. In fact, that practice has a long history, dating back at least to the ancient Greek Temple at Delphi. It was to Delphi, that "seekers of truth" from around the ancient world would travel to seek the advice of the Oracle seated there. The Oracle was actually called the Pythia, - from which we get our word python. Draped in live pythons as he sat in ceremonial office, the Oracle at Delphi was a clear reminder that both the ancient Greeks and the Babylonians before them were worshipers of the Serpent. Remember it was the Serpent, that promised that forbidden knowledge to Eve in the Garden. - Well the Oracle would only answer the questions of the "spiritual seeker" after having chewed on hallucinogenic leaves or inhaling trance inducing vapors. The Oracle, Blavatsky and others realized that drugs provided the means that would sap the resistance to suggestion, - that would open the user to spiritual possession.

But drugs are not the only means to the end of the "altered consciousness". There are other forms of "Spiritual Technology" being used by the New Age Movement to communicate with the Energy of the Universe. Some seem totally innocent on the surface. Eastern meditation, yoga, ecstatic dance, chanting, hypnosis, are all tools of those seeking Guiding Spirits. These Guiding Spirits are just what they have always been;- demon powers seeking who they may devour. And the message of all these forms of occult practice is strangely the consistent. Whether coming from the Eastern religions, the Masons, Neo-Pagans, Alien Abductees or outright Satanists it is always the same: - take the Broad Path. There is no sin. And the message of the Bible is denied. Next time we'll look at the exact outlines of that message, - the great lie of the beast.

The Revolt Against God

There is something dark and sinister about this whole movement. It is not as hare-brained and harmless as it might seem to the outsider. To start: The New Age Religion is neither new nor godly. As we have chronicled: Its pedigree extends through the centuries. The Ancient Mystery Religions begot the Kabbalists - who begot the Gnostics - who begot the Knights Templar - who gave birth to the Rosacrucians - with the Freemasons / Illuminati next in line and still existent and powerful today. Now as we've seen - or will in the near future see - various groups and movements came into being at the influence of the Masonic movement. These include Marxism, the cabal of international bankers, the World Council of Churches and other offshoots of the ecumenical movement (with the help of the Rockefellers), the Theosophists, the Jehovah's Witnesses, the Mormons and on and on. These varied belief systems have all contributed to today's New Age Movement with its panoply of 'spiritual technology' and transcendentalism. With a pedigree firmly established in 19th century spiritualism, it progressed through all its forms including the musings and hard-core Theosophy of Madame Blavatsky and Alice Bailey - who wrote books under the influence of demons. It even took allies from the earth worshipping Green - Mother Goddess environmental phenomenon of today.²⁰

Understand: There is a direct relationship between the ages-long revolt against God and the Eastern-religious ethic that has disguised itself in New Age clothing and invaded the culture today. The revolutionary spirit that is again rearing its head can lay claim to an ancestry that takes in not only the Revolutionary Generation of the 60's - but also the movements that erupted in Russian in 1917, - throughout Europe in 1848, - and in the excesses of the French Revolution of 1789. [Interestingly, throughout it all, there remained this connection with the secret societies; steeped as they were in the occult and pagan practices that could trace their origin back to Babylon and Nimrod's revolt against God.] Socialism became the political tool of the movement in much the same way that the New Age emerged as the spiritual one. The Russian revolutionary Mikhail Bakunin wrote of the direct relationship between the socialist movement and Satanism. "The Evil One is the satanic revolt against divine authority, revolt in which we see the fecund germ of all human emancipations, the revolution. Satan is the eternal rebel, the first freethinker...he emancipates [man] stamps upon his brow the seal of liberty and humanity, in urging him to disobey". Bakunin admitted that the mission of the revolutionary "is to destroy, not to edify". It is a close dance between revolution and the occult. No less a historian and statesman than Winston Churchill recognized the conspiratorial nature of the revolutionary age, concluding correctly that their purpose was the very overthrow of civilization.²¹ Masonic scholar Fr Donald Sanborn ties in Freemasonry to this stew, describing it as a "cult of liberty...not legitimate...the freedom of the devil...They desire not the liberty of the sons of God, but the 'liberty' which makes us slaves to sin".²²

As Sanborn would have it, this "cult of liberty" seems the driving ethic of that landmark decade and the explosion in Eastern, New Age and occult beliefs that accompanied it. There was clear Marxist influence in the political philosophy that grabbed much of that generation. While on the spiritual front, it is important to realize that the Masonic / Illuminati alliance has purposefully fed into the New Age movement. The modern manifestation of the New Age was born of the chaos of the 60's. The revolutionary spirit of those days was both political and spiritual. By 1965, the counterculture was challenging and in many cases breaking down what was referred to as the Establishment. Under the influence of the Beatles and other popular rock groups, Eastern religions and even outright occultism began to take hold among the nation's youth. It tainted much of a generation, bringing with it a breakdown of the moral order through a sexual revolution – whose effects are felt to this day. Those loosened moral standards remain with us to this day. The make up of the family has been forever changed. Over the ensuing decades we have seen the results in fatherlessness, which brought increasing poverty, and delinquency and more out of wedlock births and a rise in drug addiction and crime and welfare dependence...and the cycle continues to this day. Race riots erupted in the streets and Peace riots plagued the college campuses. And almost unnoticed, the fruit of the occult forces being released took their toll. No matter what you thought of the music or the politics, Woodstock was – in the words of Dr Gary North – "the high water mark of the counterculture. It was peace and love everywhere, and drugs and fornication." This hedonistic celebration followed almost immediately on the heels of the decidedly occult Manson murders. Charles Manson employed a variety of mystic-satanic mind altering techniques including drugs, mysticism, Eastern religions and sexual perversion. And strangely, the day after the details hit the news stands – on December 6th, - a Hell's Angel security guard killed a man at a music festival at Altamont, CA - as the Rolling Stones played Sympathy for the Devil. Lead singer later remarked: "We always have something very funny happen when we start that number." Gary North quotes the Stones biographer on the incident. "There, at last, was the crucial moment at Altamont in the redspotlit dark, as Mick Jagger stood, helpless among the real demons his masquerade had summoned up."²³
