END GAME 2011 – PART XI

We've set the stage. The confused spirituality that is called The New Age is the vehicle that will move the world toward the religion of the Antichrist. In Part XI we'll look briefly at its history; an exercise that will reveal clues as to where it is headed.

SELLING THE LIE OF THE BEAST

The leadership of today's New Age Movement is comprised of quite the collection of celebrated individuals, intricately bound together by a system of related but not necessarily identical beliefs. Still they are all working toward the same ends; a unification of all the world's religions, saving the planet through radical environmentalism and population control, a giant leap in "cosmic consciousness", and the ultimate coming of a New Age Christ. Lets start running down a list of the usual suspects. We can start with the UN Connection. First there is former UN Assistant Secretary General Robert Muller. He developed something called the World Core Curriculum, designed to be used by schools throughout the globe to among other things, promote internationalism at the cost of national loyalties. That curriculum is based directly on the philosophy of Alice Bailey and her demonic spirit guide. Muller is such a firm believer in a world with one religion and one government that he has called the United Nations, "the body of Christ".<sup>1</sup> Other UN luminaries pushing the New Age are former Secretary's General, U Thant, who advocates a global pantheistic religion, and Dag Hammarskjold, who founded the UN Meditation Room.

In fact, far from popular belief, the UN is not religiously neutral. The New Age is openly seating itself at the United Nations. Several groups that are committed to "bring the new world to birth" hold their meetings right at UN Headquarters. One of these, The Aquarian Age Community promotes a theology that recognizes only the divinity that comes from within each person when they are at one with the universe. They practice meditation and astral projection, which is being able to spiritually transport themselves anywhere in the universe. They openly invite direction from what they call their (demonic) spirit guides. Recognizing Jesus as only a great teacher, according to their mission statement, they are "actively preparing the way for the reappearance of the World Teacher – the Anointed One, the true Aquarian." They call him by other names, The Great Being, Bohisattva, and the Lord Maitreya. – The one for whom they wait is of course the Antichrist. The AAC tells us that he is not coming for Christians. Now quoting, "He recognizes and loves those that are not Christian but who retain their allegiance to their Founders – the Buddha, Mohammed and others...If men look for the Christ Who left his disciples centuries ago they will fail to recognize the Christ Who is in the process of returning".<sup>2</sup>

Another New Age entity seated at the UN is Alice Bailey's intellectual offspring, the Lucis Trust. Bailey held that "We are all gods". These organizations avowedly admit that the UN is a vehicle in pursuing one global religion that will replace all existing religions. And then there is the United Nations prophet-in-residence, Indian mystic, Sri Chinmoy. The official UN Spiritual Advisor, has provided prayer and meditation meetings for over two decades and believes he was Thomas Jefferson in a previous life. He also claims to be the Spiritual Brother of Jesus. His followers revere him as a living god and meditate to a picture of his face.<sup>3</sup>

Outside the United Nations the Movement has many other powerful followers. There is the Canadian billionaire and UN diplomat, Maurice Strong who is one of the main backers of the Earth Charter. The Earth Charter is designed to replace the Ten Commandments. The papyrus charter is carried in the 'Ark of Hope', a cheap mock up of the Ark of the Covenant in which the original Ten Commandments were transported. This new 'Ark' represents the five elements of pagan worship: Fire, Water, Earth, Air and Spirit. Strong is joined in his endeavors by Mikhail Gorbachev, founder of the radical environmental organization, Green Cross International and the State of the World Forum. The Forum is dedicated to shaping a "new civilization". Others involved in the State of the World Forum include Anglican Archbishop Desmond Tutu, media mogul and anti-Christian Ted Turner whose Captain Planet cartoon promoted the magical powers of the Earth Goddess, as well as numerous UN officials. The money behind the New Age group comes from the Rockefellers, CNN, Archer Daniels Midland, Occidental Petroleum, the Carnegie Corporation and the Kellogg Foundation.

And there are others. You can count in the ranks the likes of former Vice President Al Gore, who has praised primitive pagan religions and bemoaned the fact that Christianity put an end to goddess worship. There is Jean Huston, the founder of a New York “Mystery School” who guided Hillary Clinton when she contacted the spirit of Eleanor Roosevelt. There is Episcopal Bishop William Swing founder of the United Religious Initiative, - an attempt to unite all of the world’s religions. In fact there seems to be a trend among the Anglican/Episcopalian crowd. The New American Insider identified the Episcopal Cathedral of St. John the Divine, as a hotbed of “...New Age and radical left enlightenment”, teaching a form of universalism that denies the centrality of Christ.<sup>4</sup> We can’t forget Laurence Rockefeller and his Fund for the Enhancement of the Human Spirit. And then there are those in the trenches, the preachers and teachers of the New Age. You may recognize some of their names: Neale Donald Walsch of Conversations with God fame, Ram Dass, Deepak Chopra and Tony Robbins.

And the offerings of the New Age are given favorable treatment in such “main stream” media as PBS and Time Magazine. Both regularly feature the musings of the Jesus Seminar, a group of admittedly very liberal scholars who deny just about everything that the Bible says. To these people, Jesus is not God, did not rise from the dead, was not born of a virgin, and might have been married to Mary Magdalene. To the Seminar people, the Jesus of the Bible does not exist. Time Magazine hews to the same line in its articles discussing the nuances of Christianity. One New Age author quoted in the magazine said, “The God I have found is common to Moses and Mohammed, to Buddha and Jesus. It is known to every mystic tradition. Now I know there is a God, in here, demanding not faith but experience.”<sup>5</sup> The powers that be are more than friendly to New Age thinking.

But even that is not the whole of it. The New Age has become embedded in our culture. Public schools that assiduously keep out prayer and even the mention of the God of the Bible, will dedicate a month to studying Islam, complete with student role-playing. After all, ‘All paths are equal’. It’s just that some are more equal than others! Others will celebrate the earth itself. The Movement tells us the Earth is a living Spirit. They call it Gaia and it is the driving force behind radical environmentalism. They make it no secret. Leading New Age advocate Mikhail Gorbachev announced on PBS’s Charlie Rose Show, “Cosmos is my God. Nature is my God”.<sup>6</sup> This anti-Christian, pro-New Age bias is even reflected in the curricula found around the country, - see Robert Mullers World Core Curriculum referenced above. Everywhere you look the heroes of Western thought and Biblical values are being torn down in favor of the benighted practices of primitive peoples. After all, this way of living and thinking is more natural in line with the wishes of Gaia, the living Earth Spirit. And so paganism has come to be celebrated in our schools. The anti-Western historical model that is being taught is a direct attack on the values of the Judeo-Christian culture that was this nation’s unchallenged heritage until the 1960’s.

So just what is it that all of them are selling? They sell the same thing the Serpent was selling in the Garden. That you can be god! That you are god! New Age adherents look forward to a day when there will be One-World-Government and One-World-Religion. They are selling a tolerance of all things; - good and evil. And they are selling it successfully. They are saying that all ways to God are valid. They have convinced a majority of Americans believe there is no Absolute Truth. They have convinced many a born-again Christian that, “Jesus is my way...but Buddha may be yours”. They have declared that the Cross is a big lie, that we are our own saviors, that we have no need of salvation because there is no sin. Yet Jesus says, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one come to the Father except through Me”. (John 14:6) And speaking of Himself as the Son of God, Jesus said that “...whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life...but he who does not believe is condemned already. (John 3:16 & 18)

MAGOG PRESSURE BUILDING

Iran & Turkey continue to take steps toward fulfilling their prophetic destiny. That destiny includes leading positions in the End Time’s alliance that will come against Israel written about in Ezekiel 38. Here are some of the latest developments.

It seems that the elite Quds Force unit from Iran’s Revolutionary Guards has conducted an operation in the chaos that is Libya. During it they seized dozens of sophisticated Russian SA-24 surface-to-air missiles, moving them across the border into Sudan. The weapons are capable of taking down planes flying at up to 11,000 feet.<sup>7</sup> Just days after that news was reported, Tehran announced that it was producing homemade cruise missiles with a range of 124 miles capable of sinking “giant warships”, say like those belonging to...oh...the United States.<sup>8</sup> All this activity only adds to the pressure cooker of a situation regarding the near-term capabilities of Iran to fabricate its own nuclear weapons. France's UN ambassador recently warned that Iran was risking military strikes on its facilities if it did not back off on its drive to acquire nukes. "Some countries won't accept the prospect of Tehran reaching the threshold of nuclear armament." He went on to warn of "disastrous consequences in the region" should that take place.<sup>9</sup> The Iranians show no signs of slowing down their commitment to getting the bomb. In the past, President Ahmadinejad has routinely threatened Israel with destruction.<sup>10</sup> It is part of his messianic vision to create the chaos that will allow the Mahdi, the Islamic messiah to come to power.

Also a part of the coming Magog alliance is the nation of Turkey. Until just recently an ally of Israel, the Turks have been moving strongly into the radical Islamist camp and breaking ties with Jerusalem. In the last month Ankara has fully adopted the Palestinian cause and warned the Israelis that their navy will accompany future flotillas to Gaza. In the middle of September, tensions ratcheted up between Israel and Turkey, centering an oil drilling project by an American company. Noble Energy is beginning to drill for oil offshore of Cyprus for that Island nation. Israel just signed a defense pact with Greece – a traditional Turkish enemy. So by September 17th, Israeli, Greek & Turkish air and sea forces were all on alert.<sup>11 12</sup>

CURIOUS TIMING FOR A PALESTINIAN STATE ?

While the UN has begun to dither and debate the issue of a Palestinian state some rather interesting developments have arisen. The Palestinians must feel quite emboldened by the surging support they are receiving from the world community. First PA President Abbas asks for a reworking of the Oslo Accords. He wants a better deal. Then a closer look at the documents submitted to the UN are asking for more territory than demanded before. It seems they want even more land than would be provided by a return to the pre-1967 borders. The latest Palestinian proposal would include not only Jerusalem but the site of Israel's Ben Gurion Airport outside of Tel Aviv. Yet still, Abbas refuses to even recognize Israel.<sup>13</sup> Such a deal!

Then there's this. The Quartet – (US, UN, EU & Russia) – have formulated a new peace initiative that aims at December of 2012 as the target date for the new Palestine to come into being.<sup>14</sup> Prime Minister Netanyahu has signaled his willingness to go along with the proposal.<sup>15</sup> And there's a curious report in World Net Daily. It reports that a "top PA official" says that President Obama told them there would not be much movement until after the election. But once re-elected, "the schedule will be short to reach a Palestinian state."<sup>16</sup> But there's an interesting take on all of this noted by David Bay of Cutting Edge Ministries. Bay points out that the new date picked by the PTB for a Palestinian state to come into being is December of 2012. That's the same time – on December 21st – that the Mayan calendar comes to an end. Bay dismisses the notion of cosmic disasters and then offers that while "none of the doomsday scenarios being published by Mass Media are likely to occur, we believe it highly possible that this may be the date on which the Holy Spirit will allow Satan to carry out his 'Paradigm Shift Producing The Universal Mind', a worldwide demon possession planned by the Illuminati as an immediate precursor to the appearance of their Antichrist. In fact, House of Theosophy writings quite plainly state that Antichrist cannot arise until this demonic Paradigm Shift has occurred."<sup>17</sup> Yeah I know it sounds crazy, but....

YADAS

A PROPHETIC TRADE ? – This came in just as we went to press. President Bashar Assad of Syria has threatened to launch a multi-front missile barrage on Tel Aviv if Syria is attacked by...say...Turkey...or other NATO powers such as the US, France or the UK. Israel response was to warn Assad that even one missile landing in Tel Aviv would result in Damascus paying the price.<sup>18</sup> That brings to mind Isaiah 17:1, where the destruction of Damascus is prophesied. We'll develop this breaking story in more detail in our next issue.

FUKUSHIMA – As Dennis Hopper once said while smelling Buffalo Bills Defensive End Bruce Smith's sneakers in an now ancient TV commercial: "Bad things man. Bad things!" That's what the effects of the Fukushima nuclear disaster are turning into. Here's Bloomberg News. "What's emerging in Japan six months since the nuclear meltdown at the Tokyo Electric Power Co. plant is a radioactive zone bigger than that left by the 1945 atomic bombings at Hiroshima and Nagasaki." There's about a 20 mile zone around the plant damaged in the combination earthquake / tsunami disaster that hit back in March. An ABC Sydney article talked about how the Japanese government knows that thousands will not be able to return to their homes. They say for 10 to 20 years. But it could be eons longer. The disaster could ring up in the range of $223 billion. "Bad things!"<sup>19 20</sup>

JUST AHEAD: PEAK OIL ? – It’s defined by Wikipedia as “the point in time when the maximum rate of global petroleum extraction is reached, after which the rate of production enters terminal decline.” There’s been a bit of debate on whether it’s a real concept or not. But at least two of the world’s major militaries are taking it seriously. The US Joint Forces Command concluded that surplus oil production could peak as early as 2012. The German Army came up with a more detailed study. While they gave no hard date but concentrated on the results. They’ve concluded reaching this point will result in:

- Increased oil prices. In turn these will lead to...
- Reduced consumption, causing...
- A “recession or worse”, resulting in...
- Unaffordable food for some...
- “Pressure on government budgets” to feed populations. These will lead to social consequences such as...
- Mass unemployment
- Falling government revenues
- Existential pressure on banking systems and financial markets<sup>21</sup>

BIG BROTHERISM – The Federal Reserve has plans to monitor millions of communications and “identify key bloggers” who have expressed opinions on “Facebook, Twitter, forums and blogs.” Yeah, I’m comfortable with that! Here’s looking up your old e-mail address.<sup>22</sup>

EVIL FOR GOOD – “Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; Who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; Who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!” (Isaiah 5:20) A judge in Alberta, Canada set a woman free even though she had been convicted by two juries of strangling her newborn baby and throwing his body over a fence. The judge reduced the charge from 2nd degree murder to infanticide. The judge wrote: “while many Canadians undoubtedly view abortion as a less than ideal solution to unprotected sex and unwanted pregnancy, they generally understand, accept and sympathize with the onerous demands pregnancy and childbirth exact from mothers, especially mothers without support. Naturally, Canadians are grieved by an infant’s death, especially at the hands of the infant’s mother, but Canadians also grieve for the mother.”<sup>23</sup>

BUILDING SUPERNATION #2 – According to the plan of the globalist Club of Rome, the EU is supposed to be Super Nation #2 in a Confederation of 10 that will form up as a prelude to forming a One World Government. The current financial crisis has been advancing that cause. One Euro-Politician admitted that once you have a common currency – it’s only common sense that you’ll need a common political structure. Europe’s debt problems are leading in that direction. LEAP 20/20 believes that a “political integration treaty” is no more than 3 years away. And now the EU government in Brussels has drawn up plans for compulsory classes in “European citizenship” for all school students. The indoctrination will begin at 5 years old.<sup>24 25 26</sup>
