ZEW'S NEWS REVIEW

November 20, 2011

Issue #371

IS IT TIME ?

Whether rumor or reality, the word is going forth. According to the UK's Daily Mail: A senior Foreign Official has revealed that Great Britain is expecting Israel to finally launch its attack against the Iranian nuclear sites – possibly within the month. The unnamed source said: "We're expecting something as early as Christmas, or very early in the new year." The Daily Mail and other news sources in Israel indicated that it is expected that the US will provide support for the attacks. Britain as well as other NATO allies are making preparations to participate – should they decide to join the assault. According to DEBKA: "NATO powers France, Britain, Germany, Holland and Italy would participate directly or indirectly in the Israeli operation."<sup>1 2 3</sup> Signs of the seriousness of the situation include the fact that Israel has cancelled military leaves and put 20 Arrow anti-ballistic missile batteries on alert.<sup>4</sup>

The story last issue was that Prime Minister Netanyahu was marshalling support in the cabinet for such a strike. If the latest reports are accurate, it seems he has achieved that threshold of support. This conclusion was undoubtedly aided by a IAEA Report that pulled the veil on Iran's plans for nuclear weapons. Its findings included that Iran had: 1) Acquired equipment and design info to fabricate nuclear weapons. 2) Developed the high explosives needed to detonate a nuclear explosion. 3) Created the computer model of a nuclear warhead core. 4) Made preparations for nuclear testing. 5) Developed the means of mounting a nuclear warhead on its Shahab 3 – intermediate range missiles.<sup>5</sup>

Despite all the reports there are some expert observers that believe that an attack is unlikely to occur. Joseph Farah's G2 Bulletin points to some "mitigating factors" that could "preclude" Israeli action. For one thing, Iran's nuclear infrastructure is scattered across the country and sunken into mountain sides and hardened bunkers making it difficult to destroy. Secondly, it would expose American troops in Iraq and elsewhere in the region to direct attack by Iranian missiles and indirect assault by Tehran's terrorist proxies. And finally, Iran could mine the Strait of Hormuz, through which flows 2/5 of the world's oil traffic.<sup>6</sup> The effect that would have on an already teetering world economy would be catastrophic.

On the other hand though: Israel, especially under the leadership of Netanyahu is committed to survival – and preventing Iran, if possible, from going nuclear. And then there's the fact that a Middle East war right now would serve the expressed desires of the Illuminati / New World Order folks. Here's DEBKA's analysis of the situation. "Since this attack would almost certainly bring forth reprisals from Tehran and its allies, Syria, Hizballah and the Palestinian Hamas and Jihad Islami, it would almost certainly expand into a wider Middle East conflict, thus also broadening US and West European military intervention." And Iran's Fars News Agency reports that "30,000 Syrian and Palestinian men have spent the past three months training to infiltrate Israel in order to carry out suicide missions."<sup>7</sup> Which brings to the latest – somewhat puzzling developments.

'A Most Unfortunate Accident'

On November 12th, a most amazing coincidence occurred. Massive explosions rocked two Iranian military bases involved in Tehran's nuclear and missile development programs within minutes of each other. The blasts were felt in Tehran over 25 miles away. The Iranians are officially calling the blasts an accident. The explosions took the lives of 32 Iranians including their top nuclear missile scientist, Brig Gen Hassan Moghadam, who commanded the Revolutionary Guards missile development program. Reports are circulating that the blast occurred while the Iranians were attempting to mount a nuclear warhead on a Shahab 3 missile.<sup>8</sup>

Now here's where it starts to get really interesting. To even the most casual – and gullible observer – the notion of 2 massive explosions occurring at 2 separate Iranian nuclear / missile bases – in the middle of a drive by Israel & the US & some other selected allies to stop Iran from getting a homegrown ability to produce 'the bomb' – being an accident or coincidence is ridiculous beyond credulity. So there is little surprise that stories began to flow that this was the work of Israel's Mossad. Shadowy 'Western' military sources and former Iranian officials began to finger Mossad in the successful attacks. TIME Magazine / CNN blogs carried the stories as did the UK's Guardian. Aaron Klein of World Net Daily and TIME suggested that General Moghaddam was possibly targeted because he had "recently sent his assistants to the Gaza Strip to train militants there to target Israel with missiles." Richard Silverstein reported that Israel's Mossad used the terror group Mujahadeen e-Khalq (MEK) to carry out the attacks, According to Excavator News, Mossad's connection with the MEK is well known in intelligence circles. David Bay of Cutting Edge Ministries believes that Israel is trying to goad Tehran into an attack on Israel that will more easily justify an IDF attack on the Iranian nuclear facilities.<sup>10 11 12 13 14 15</sup> (That is, by the way, the revealed plan of the Illuminati; to create a major war in the Middle East as the starting point for 'all the fun' that will lead to the rise of the New Age Christ.)

A wider war in the Middle East! That's exactly the plan revealed in Peter Lemesurier's 1980's prophetic tome: The Armageddon Script. It is just what he says will be the first step in creating the chaos that will bring the New Order into being – that will enable the New Age Christ to take the stage.<sup>16</sup> It would also fit the time table given just a couple of years ago by a highly placed – but anonymous Brit – when he revealed Masonic plans to engineer the beginning of World War III through a strike by Israel on Iran.<sup>17</sup> But why now? Because the sense of urgency is very real. We have this bit of intelligence from DEBKA. "By April 2012 Iran will have five nuclear bombs or warheads, says intelligence reaching US president Barack Obama ....The window of opportunity for stopping Iran attaining a nuclear weapon will shut down in late March, after which military action would generate radioactive contamination across the Gulf oil region."<sup>18</sup>

A GREAT AMERICAN APOSTASY – PART II

Welcome to PART II of what will be kind of an exploratory survey of the shape that a putative 'Christian' faith is taking in America today. (Simply put, that just means I'm not sure where I'm going to be going with this over the next few weeks.) Last time, we looked at some of the compromises that are being routinely made with the Word of God, with non-Christian faiths – and lastly, even with Paganism. It is from this last area that we will jump off from today. And if you were not aware of it before – the story is near in-credible....but nonetheless true. (Thanks & recognition must go to Vigilant Citizen for the inspiration and material used especially at the beginning of this article.)

ST JOHN THE DIVINE

“For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers; and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to fables. (2Timothy 4:3-4)

The Cathedral Church of St John the Divine in New York City is one of the largest churches in the world and serves as the seat of the Episcopal Diocese there. It is a massive structure; imposing and significant in its architectural symbolism. And that is where we'll begin. Because you see, some of those symbols built right into the building – are anything but Christian. One of the first things you see when looking at the structure is the Illuminati Pyramid and the All Seeing Eye of Horus perched just above the main entrance. So already: Hints of paganism. Next, we move to the west side of the building. It is there that we encounter something very strange – and prophetic. Sculpted unto two of the columns are scenes representing the destruction of New York City. These were completed in 1997, four years before the attack of 911. Yet one depicts the collapse of the Twin Towers. Also definitely defined on this column are the Chrysler Building and the Citigroup building. It is informative that an article in Masonic Magazine published in 1925 proudly claimed Masonic involvement in the construction of the cathedral. Is this further destruction to be understood as a Masonic prophecy of what is to come? If so, we must look to the twin of this particular column to understand the extent of the intended destruction. In this second example we see carved a workup of the Brooklyn Bridge, buckling and collapsing, with vehicles tumbling into the roiling waters below, a sinking Statue of Liberty and a mock up of the New York Stock Exchange building. A 2009 article in Vigilant Citizen offers its explanation of the meaning of the strange depictions.

“So, what is the purpose of this weird carving? Well, the first thing that needs to be mentioned is the actual St. John the Divine is credited for writing the Book of Revelation in the Bible, which describes in symbolic imagery the events of the apocalypse. Occultists believe that the Book of Revelation has been hermetically coded to reveal its true meaning to the initiates of esoteric teachings. This scene, carved on the west entrance of the cathedral, depicts New York as being ‘Babylon the Great’, the city who gets completely destroyed by the wrath of God.” This is a reference of course to Revelation 18. It’s as if the Masons / PTB were signaling that they were indeed engineering the coming of the New World Order which they seek – and that New York is to be the ‘Fallen’ Babylon written of in the Book of Revelation. “Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and has become a dwelling place of demons...For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury.” (Revelation 18:2-3)<sup>19</sup>

Well things at the Cathedral of St John the Divine go down hill from there. The grounds are strewn with pagan statues; Halloween is celebrated with a “Procession of the Ghouls”; and the famous New Age musician, Paul Winter performs a Winter Solstice celebration there. But the most egregious act may be its ties to something called the Temple of Understanding. Now remember, St John’s bills itself as an Episcopalian church. The last time I checked they still claimed to be a Christian denomination. Yet here is an interesting statement found on the official website of the Temple of Understanding that reveals the agenda behind their façade of tolerance. “We educate youth and adults both cross culturally and inter-religiously for global citizenship and peaceful coexistence; advocate for acceptance and respect for religious pluralism by the worlds governing bodies; and actively continue to promote justice and tolerance.”<sup>20</sup>

Perhaps more damning are the circumstances of its birth. The Temple serves as a “more distanced front group” for the Lucis Trust – which had once been the Lucifer Trust; a group founded by Alice Bailey in 1922 to promote the occult agenda of Theosophy. Now both the Lucis Trust and the Temple of Understanding are officially recognized by the United Nations as NGOs and have offices there. The Temple of Understanding has had many influential supporters and friends over the years. The Vigilant Citizen describes it as “an interfaith effort to steer away people from traditional religions to a hybrid kind of spirituality based on New Age philosophies, Neo-Paganism and a mix of organized religions’ traditions. The ‘friends’ who have assisted the founder Juliet Hollister include John D. Rockefeller II, the XIV Dalai Lama, Pope John XXIII, Eleanor Roosevelt, UN Secretary-General U Thant, International Planned Parenthood and the Jewish Theological Seminary.”<sup>21</sup> This is confirmed by New Age proponent Jean Houston in her book ‘Trojan Horse’. “The Temple’s purpose is to facilitate the one world religion, through the promoting both the acceptance and the embrace of all religions, beliefs and rituals. The Temple of Understanding’s Meditation Room was to be known as the ‘Hall of Illumination’ where the Illuminati, Masters of Wisdom, Our Leaders of the Temple of Understanding will train the public in the new humanistic cult...to create a new type of mystic”<sup>22</sup> [Thanks for telling us plainly, Jean!] So taking them all at their own words: We must understand that they are ‘all about’ building a New World Order replete with a Universal New World Order Church that will educate ‘global citizens’ to be loyal and faithful to the New World Order government. Ah yes, just what the Bible tells us will be the case under the auspices of the Antichrist’s regime!

The Cathedral has also had a long relationship with something called Lindesfarne. It is through that organization that the church has been involved in the promotion of the occult; primarily through witchcraft. Here’s this from an article entitled The Real History of Satanism published in Rense. “In the United States, Wicca’s outstanding sponsor is the New York Anglican (Episcopal) diocese, under Bishop Paul Moore. Officially, New York’s Anglican Cathedral of St. John the Divine has promoted the spread of WICCA witchery through its Lindisfarne center...the crypt of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, is the headquarters for solemn ceremonies of the British (Venerable) Order of Malta. Key figures, such as Gregory Bateson’s former spouse, Dame Margaret Mead, associated with that British order, have been associated with projects in support of the Satanist ‘Age of Aquarius’ cause.”<sup>23</sup> St John’s is not shy about this connection. It has even opened its pulpit to Phyllis Curott, a Wiccan priestess, who heads one of the oldest Wiccan congregations in the United States.<sup>24</sup>

Lindesfarne, by the way, is a financial beneficiary of the Rockefeller Foundation. Among its faculty is New Ager and Luciferian, David Spangler. His philosophy closely echoes that expressed by the highest levels of Freemasonry, wherein Lucifer is the god that is openly worshipped over the God of the Bible, Adonai. Here's Spangler waxing darkly and somewhat poetic. "Lucifer, like Christ, stands at the door of man's consciousness and knocks. If man says, 'Go away because I do not like what you represent, I am afraid of you,' Lucifer will play tricks on that fellow. If man says, 'Come in, and I will give to you the treat of my love and understanding and I will uplift you in the light and presence of the Christ, my outflow,' then Lucifer becomes something else again. He becomes the being who carries that great treat, the ultimate treat, the light of wisdom."<sup>25 26</sup> And thus there is that connection in all of this to the original temptation offered to Eve in the Garden; to eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

A Prophetic Airport ?

This vision of a violent birthing of a New World Order can be seen in other venues too. I'm specifically talking about the Denver International Airport. There's something going on there that defies easy explanation...yet may not quite reach the level of some of the hyper-conspiracies that attempt to explain it. Here's what we do know. It was built in 1994 on 34,000 acres. It is consistently rumored to have massive underground facilities that can accommodate a great number of people in the case of catastrophic emergency. Don't know if that's true – though it does have a giant tunneling system – most of which is not currently in use. And it does have some really crazy...as in spooky...art work. Visitors are greeted by a giant Horse of the Apocalypse with glowing red eyes. There is a Masonic Capstone with a dedication that credits the New World Airport Commission. Thus one writer concludes that since said commission does not in reality exist, "it most likely refers to the New World Order." Coincidentally that is located in the terminal's 'Great Hall', the same name used by Masonic Temples for their meeting halls wherein they perform their dark occultic rituals.<sup>27</sup>

Then there are the murals. There are three that we'll mention – each creepier than the next. Now the artist, Tanguma, claims that his artwork are 'painted sermons' advocating the virtues of the poor and the evils of greed and violence. The first is called 'Peace and Harmony with Nature'. It depicts children sadly looking at animal species that are dying off; headed toward extinction. At the bottom are three coffins with three racially distinct children lying in them. In one lies a blonde haired white girl wearing a yellow Star of David and clutching a Bible with an emblazoned Cross.

The Vigilant Citizen article suggests that it symbolizes "the death of Judeo-Christian beliefs." In the background we find both a city and a forest are on fire. A second painting called Children of the World Dream of Peace, shows "Children of all colors, dressed in folkloric costumes give weapons wrapped in their country's national flag to a... German boy" dressed in a Bavarian costume. The artist says that this is showing the world coming together. The last one is the darkest of all.

It features "children sleeping on piles of bricks, a line of mourning women in rags with dead babies, limp in their arms. A huge, looming military figure in a gas mask brandishes a sword and machine gun. Part of an actual note written by a child interred in a Nazi death camp. Strange words embedded in the floor with no explanation about what they mean." The sword shown in the picture is actually a scimitar; a style of sword used in Islam and a symbol found in Freemasonry. The military figure is stabbing a dove – the symbol of peace...and the Holy Spirit – with its' bayonet.<sup>28 29</sup> Is there a message here? Perhaps! If there is it may be the same one communicated on the columns of the Cathedral of St John the Divine. You be the judge.
